21ST Century Scholars Newsletter

Message from the Coordinator

Welcome incoming Scholars and welcome back returning Sycamores! As the Program Coordinator of 21ST Century Scholars, I am delighted to welcome you to Indiana State University. I am excited for your upcoming academic year and hope you get involved, connect with your professors, and succeed at every level. I expect you to take advantage of your opportunity to receive a valuable education while learning to become a productive citizen. I look forward to seeing you at our some of our upcoming events. Please stop by to visit, talk, socialize, or receive assistance. My office is located on the second floor of Normal Hall, just behind the bookshelves.

Go Sycamores!
