

TEAM MANUAL

HOSTED BY

Indiana State University

INDIANA STATE UNIVERSITY

Athletics Media Relations

November 2006

Dear Cross Country Championship Participants:

On behalf of the entire Indiana State University community of learners, welcome to the 2006 NCAA Men's and Women's Cross Country Championships. Indiana State is pleased and honored to, once again, host this exciting event.

Congratulations to all of you for your achievements this season. At Indiana State, as at campuses throughout the state and around the nation, we take great pride in the accomplishments of our student athletes, both in competition and in the classroom.

We offer best wishes to all of the competitors and their coaches, and we salute you for the hard work you have put into this season. To all of the fans, we extend sincere appreciation for your support of intercollegiate athletics. Your encouragement and backing plays an important part in the success of these fine young people.

Good luck to one and all!

Sincerely,

Lloyd W. Benjamin III
President

INDIANA STATE UNIVERSITY

Intercollegiate Athletics

Dear Coach,

On Monday, November 20, 2006, Indiana State University will host the 2006 NCAA Division I Men's and Women's Cross Country Championship for the fourth year. Our cross country course is one of a very few specially designed for cross country and teams from across the nation have found it to be an extremely challenging one.

The enclosed information will assist you in planning your itinerary. Our Championships Committee has planned an outstanding weekend of events in an effort to maximize the championship experience for your deserving athletes, their parents and your team's supporters.

As the Director of Athletics at Indiana State University, I am excited to be a part of this event. I look forward to enjoying the super-charged atmosphere of an event that places Terre Haute, Indiana, in the headlines. Please feel free to call me if you have any questions or special needs during your visit. The Championships Committee and I look forward to your arrival.

Best wishes for a successful season.

Sincerely,

Ron Prettyman
Director of Athletics
Indiana State University