I feel very fortunate to have had to opportunity to learn from Heather Penney at the West Central Indiana Small Business Development Center. I am an entrepreneur who has had no formal business education or experiences prior to discovering the SBDC. Through the Small Business Development Center's direction I have attending several courses ranging from OSHA certification to QuickBooks financial training. These courses have all been either low cost or free.

Heather Penney has been a tremendous resource in developing my company. Through the guidance at the SBDC I have a developed an extensive Business Plan which provides me with explicit goals to assist in my company's expansion. I gained the knowledge needed to create my Business Plan through several no cost, one on one sessions at the SBDC.

I highly recommend the SBDC to anyone who is thinking of starting a business, as well as those who have a successful business and wish to see it grow.

Sincerely,

Jamie M. Richey
