Did you know? Indiana residents are allowed tax credits on their state income tax returns when they make gifts to the Indiana State University Foundation. Donors may take a tax credit for one half of the gift amount, up to and including $200 on a joint return, or up to and including $100 for single returns. This tax credit can be claimed in addition to federal income tax charitable deductions.

Indiana State University appreciates your service and support. Please return with your pledge card to:
ISU Foundation, 320 Gillum Hall.
