I have read the policies associated with the scholarship and award process in the Scott College of Business and understand that if my student status changes, I may no longer be eligible to receive my scholarship/award. I understand that academic information will be gathered by the award committee to complete my application. To the best of my knowledge, all of the information in my application is accurate.

Scholarship funds are generally split between the following fall and spring semesters. Any request to deviate from this arrangement must be submitted in the form of a written petition to the Scott College of Business Student Affairs Committee, c/o Office of the Undergraduate Dean, room 517.

Several of the college-wide scholarships have criteria specified by donors. In order to be considered for these awards, an essay may be required.

I have attached the following essays to my application (check all that apply). Each essay needs to be printed on a separate sheet of paper. Include your name and 991 number on each sheet.

_____ Essay (about 100 words) explaining any financial need.

_____ Essay (about 100 words) explaining any work experience.

_____ Essay (about 100 words) explaining any interest in real estate.

_____ Essay (about 100 words) explaining any work or family situations that have slowed your degree progress.
