

ISU Employee Only Incentives

ISU, as well as a number of local businesses and franchises in the Terre Haute area, offer discounts and special deals ("perks") to Indiana State University Staff and Faculty. The intent of these offers is to encourage goodwill within the community between ISU and local businesses; ISU Staff and Faculty will have incentive to patronize local businesses, and local businesses will benefit from increased business with ISU employees. These perks are special offers and not a part of the benefits packages provided by Indiana State University.

DISCLAIMER: By listing businesses and their offers below, Indiana State University is not endorsing these businesses or the goods/services offered. We have been in contact with these businesses, or they have contacted us, regarding partnering in our program. The listings below are provided by the respective businesses; Indiana State University is not responsible for whether the information is accurate or current. Be a wise consumer and research services and discounts appropriately before taking advantage of an offer.

ISU Campus Offers

Chair Massage

Chair massage is performed in the workplace or at the Student Recreation Center. Employees will be seated upright on a special massage chair and will remain fully clothed. The sessions generally last from ten to twenty minutes. For a list of prices and appointment times visit the SRC website.

For more information on the chair massage contact: Edie Richards; CMT at: www.edieartsandwellness.com or edie@edieartsandwellness.com or call: 317-796-6389

Community Service Leave Policy

ISU employees are encouraged to become involved in their communities, lending their voluntary support to programs that enrich the quality of life and opportunities for all citizens.

A maximum of 15 hours of paid leave per fiscal year will be made available to current full-time employees on July 1 of each year.

A maximum of 7.5 hours of paid leave per fiscal year will be made available to current part-time employees on July 1 of each year.

For more information about the community service leave policy and eligible community service activities visit: <http://www.indstate.edu/publicservice/faculty/leave/default.aspx>

ISU Employee Incentives

Cunningham Memorial Library

Use of the library is available with your ISU ID card. You may check out materials with your card; different materials have different check-out periods. You can also have access to reference information, movies, music, CD's, and internet connection.

Early Childcare Center

ISU's Early Childcare Education Center (ECEC) is designed as a comprehensive childcare/child development center to serve children, 6 weeks to 5 years of age, of ISU students, faculty, staff members, and community families. An additional feature is to provide an exemplary child care program for academic research and training. This program is designed for children whose parents/guardians have work or school obligations.

Faculty and staff are charged based on their income. They can receive assistance through CCDF or another outside agency. If there is a waiting list, faculty and staff receive priority on the list.

For more information visit the ECEC's webpage: <http://www.indstate.edu/ecec/> or call: 812-237-2547

Fee Waiver for ISU College Classes

Fee waivers are offered on a limited basis to faculty and staff, spouses/partners, and dependent children. Staff and Spouses/Partners may take up to 15 hours of course work at ISU each academic year at a reduced rate. Spouse/Partners may take up to 15 semester hours and have 80% of qualified tuition waived. Dependent children of qualified employees of ISU who are full-time Undergraduate students will receive a waiver of 80 percent of qualified tuition per semester for a maximum ten (10) semesters. Qualified employees must have been employed at Indiana State University in that capacity for at least one year for dependent children to receive the waiver. For eligibility requirements and more information regarding the fee waiver benefit, contact the Staff Benefits Office at 812-237-4151.

ISU Dining

“Blue Bucks”, a declining balance account tied to the staff ID card, gives patrons the ability to make purchases at participating off campus merchants in addition to the on campus capabilities of the ID card. Blue Bucks roll over from semester- to- semester and year- to –year.

In addition to making purchases at on-campus locales such as the Commons, Library, Bayh College of Education and the Student Recreation Center, ISU ID card holders will be able to use Blue Bucks to make purchases at off campus businesses such as Coffee Grounds, the Saratoga, Roly Poly, Papa Johns, Exotic Thai Cuisine, Hardees, Pizza City and 7th and Elm.

Cardholders can get started by visiting the Dining Services Main Office or calling 812-237-4138 to make dining as easy as swiping a card. Deposits can be made on line at: <http://www.isubbluebucks.com/index.html>

“Commons Cash” is another option also available for purchase as currency that can be spent in any food format on campus. Your favorite restaurants in the Commons (such as Burger King, and Taco Bell) take Commons Cash. The Sycamore and Lincoln Dining Halls also take Commons Cash, as do Coffee Shops all over campus. For more information visit the dining service website: <http://www.indstate.edu/reslife/foodsvc>

Osher Lifelong Learning Institute

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at Indiana State University (OLLI at Indiana State) is a non-profit membership organization open to all adults, regardless of academic background. At the Institute's core are programs developed by its members and tailored to suit the interests of adults age 50 and older. These programs are offered without concern for grades, credits, or prerequisites. Indeed, the only requirement for membership in OLLI at Indiana State is a love of learning. For more information visit the OLLI website: <http://www.indstate.edu/olli/> or call: 812-237-2336

Summer Flexible Work Hours

Each vice presidential area will make a determination as to departments that may participate in the program based upon workload and schedules. This will allow employees the opportunity of a four day schedule by working longer days four days each week. Office hours will be determined by departments. The options for office hours can vary

More information about the summer flexible work hours will be posted in the spring on the HR website at :

<http://www.indstate.edu/humres/>

University Closure During Winter Recess

The University calendar includes a Winter Recess period during which time most University offices will be closed. Each vice president will determine which operations and offices must remain open. The winter recess period begins the weekday before the Federal recognized Christmas holiday and includes the four traditional workdays (Winter recess) that occur after. For continuous shift operations (Public Safety and Power Plant), scheduled shifts that occur on non-traditional week days (weekends) may be included as winter recess days in equalizing time off. In addition, the University recognizes the New Years Day holiday after winter recess.
