indiana state university is seeking bright, motivated high school sophomores and juniors to participate in a one-of-a-kind college experience. engage yourself in a one-week hands-on experience while earning college credit and scholarships. opportunities await you on our beautiful campus, but act quickly, because space is limited.

indiana state's summer honors offers:

- $1,000 in scholarship opportunities for future enrollment at indiana state
- hands-on learning
- one college credit

this course will introduce you to the discipline of interior architecture/design and showcase opportunities for success within this profession. projects addressing the built environment will be based upon sustainable projects and shelters which integrate beauty, accessibility, sustainability, and technical sophistication. in addition to these projects, other activities will include local architectural walking tours and a field trip to indianapolis to visit an architectural firm and view some of its projects.
