*Evening and Saturday Classes

Final examinations for all 5:00 p.m. or 5:30 p.m. and all evening classes which begin at 6:00 p.m. or later that that meet once a week are scheduled at 7:00 p.m. during finals week on the day of the week the class normally meets. Final examinations for 6:00 p.m. or later classes that meet more than once per week are scheduled for 7:00 p.m. during finals week on one of the regular meeting days of the class. It is the decision of the instructor as to which of the regular meeting days will be used for the final examination for 6:00 p.m. or later classes that meet more than once a week. Saturday classes will conduct final examinations during the regular meeting time on the last meeting date.

Study Week Policy

Study Week is intended to encourage student preparation for final examinations given during the final examination week. Class attendance, however, is still expected. No examination of any kind, including quizzes that count over four percent of the grade, can be given during Study Week. Papers due during Study Week must be specified in the class syllabus handed out to students at the beginning of each semester. Examinations for laboratory; intensive, mini-courses; or summer sessions are permitted.

The student is responsible for notifying the Student Government Association of a violation of any of the above terms. The Student Government Association will take the correct procedures for informing the faculty member and the academic department chairperson of the failure to comply with the terms of the Study Week policy. The student's name will be confidential to the Student Government Association.
