INDIANA STATE UNIVERSITY
RULES and REGULATIONS GOVERNING
PRESIDENT'S SCHOLARSHIP
2013 – 2014

1. President's Scholarships are offered to an elite group of first-year students who have demonstrated outstanding academic performance in high school and during an on-campus interview competition. To retain this scholarship, the student must:
 - A. enroll as a full-time student each semester (minimum of 12 credits) and successfully complete a minimum of 30 credit hours each academic year. This will enable the student to successfully progress toward graduation within four years.
 - B. maintain a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.5 as measured at the end of each academic year for the duration of eligibility.
2. The student must be a member of the University Honors Program for his/her first three years.
3. Students are required to live in on-campus housing for their first three years as ISU students while receiving the President's Scholarship. University Apartments falls under the umbrella of on-campus housing.
4. President's Scholars will attend bi-monthly Leadership Meetings during their first year. They will meet with University and Terre Haute Community leaders who will lead discussion on topics from their professional experiences.
5. President's Scholars are expected to annually volunteer for a community service experience. This can be completing a designated service-learning course or participating in a designated program of the Center for Community Engagement (www.indstate.edu/publicservice), including, but not limited to: Fall and Spring Donaghy Day, Hull House Service Learning Trip, Alternative Spring Break and Sycamore Service Corps.
6. President's Scholars will be required to participate in a Study Abroad experience sometime after they have completed their first two semesters on the ISU campus. Study Abroad experiences can vary in length and can take place during the fall, spring, or summer terms. An additional $500 stipend will be awarded to the student's account for the term when the student goes abroad.
7. The President's Scholarship is good for a total of eight consecutive semesters of enrollment*, or the point at which a student earns his/her first undergraduate degree.

*Enrolling in a summer term will count as one of the eight semesters of eligibility. Summer study requires prior approval from the University Scholarship Office.
8. A student who withdraws or discontinues enrollment for one or more semesters may request renewal for a future semester by writing to the University Scholarship Office before withdrawing. The petition form is available at www.indstate.edu/scholarships/petition.htm. The request should state the student's name (including any changes), student identification number, reason(s) for withdrawal, and the semester he/she is planning to re-enroll. Students who withdraw or discontinue full-time yearly enrollment without filing a written request and getting approval for the reinstatement of the scholarship will forfeit their award. Once the scholarship is lost, it cannot be reinstated.
9. Semesters in which a student enrolls are charged against the offer regardless of completion of classes, incomplete grades, or no grades.
