

Fall 2017 iPad Scholarship Agreement

iPad Acceptance-Your new Apple iPad is a scholarship and therefore subject to tax implications. Please read and initial each statement:

_____ I understand that if my Apple iPad stops functioning whether it is due to accidental damage (i.e. drops or spills) or equipment malfunction I am responsible for sending it back to Apple for repair and if there any costs associated with fixing it I am responsible for paying for the repairs, if any are charged.

_____ I understand that if my Apple iPad stops functioning I will not be given a loaner or replacement.

_____ I understand that ISU will not provide any charging cables, headphones or other peripherals.

_____ I understand that ISU will provide, through the Technology Support Center, the following:

1. Help with setting up your Apple iPad (email, wifi, instructions for printing).
2. Answer general questions about your iPad.
3. Help with installing apps that you purchase or download (if possible).
4. Instruct you on how to send your iPad back to the vendor for repair, or help you to find a place to take it for possible repair (e.g. Apple Store in Indy).

_____ I understand that any amount of a scholarship (including athletic scholarship), fellowship, or grant that exceeds the costs of tuition, mandatory fees, books, and equipment required for courses of instruction will be considered taxable income and may be subject to federal and/or state tax. Please see IRS Publication 970 or consult your tax accountant for more detailed information. The cost of the Apple iPad for tax purposes is $299.00 and the Otterbox case is $40.00.

_____ I understand that once I have picked up the iPad, ownership of this device and all associated liability will be transferred to me. At this time I accept full responsibility and I agree to hold ISU harmless in the event that information stored on or transmitted through this device is breached or compromised.

If you are under 18 years of age, you must have a legal guardian read, initial, and sign this document.

By signing below, I agree that I have received my Apple iPad and understand the information regarding my iPad scholarship as explained in this contract.
