

2023 Federal Poverty Guidelines for 2024 Health Coverage Rate Subsidy

You can receive a subsidy for your Indiana State University health coverage rates in 2024 if your household income is less than 200% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines. NOTE: Only those who enroll or are currently enrolled in the Traditional PPO plan are eligible to apply for the subsidy. Please see the information in the chart below. To apply for this subsidy, you must:

1. Complete an application for Indiana State University Health Coverage Rate subsidy
2. Provide federal tax information for 2022 on each person counted in the household
3. Submit this information to Employee Benefits no later than November 17, 2023.

Persons in Family/Household Count:

Include yourself, spouse, natural children, other family members living with you and unborn children if pregnant at the time this calculation is made.

Do NOT include live in partners, housemates or other non-relatives.

Income that needs to be included: All income for every person counted as family or household.

Persons in Family/Household	100% of Poverty Guidelines	200% of Poverty Guidelines
1	$14,580	$29,160
2	$19,720	$39,440
3	$24,860	$46,060
4	$30,000	$60,000
5	$35,140	$70,280
6	$40,280	$80,560
7	$45,420	$90,840
8	$50,560	$101,120

*Add $4,540 for each person over 8

TO ORDER 2022 TAX INFORMATION:

*Employees can call the IRS @ 1-800-908-9946 to request a 2022 Tax Return Transcript,

Or

Go to www.irs.gov and search for “tax return transcript” to order this document online.

Questions? Call Employee Benefits, Ext. 4114