INTERIM-VICE PRESIDENT STUDENT AFFAIRS AND DEAN OF STUDENTS

NOLAN DAVIS

Nolan Davis was appointed as Interim Vice President of Student Affairs effective July 22, 2014, where he will have oversight for the African American Cultural, the Student Counseling Center, the Office of Students Activities and Organizations, including Greek Life, the Hulman Memorial Student Union, Student Judicial Programs, Student Publications, the Student Recreation and Wellness Center, the Student Government Association, the Union Board and the Associate Dean of Students who serves as the university Ombudsperson.

Davis joined Indiana State's staff in 2008 as director of Student Activities and Organizations. He has held the position of associate vice president for Student Affairs since 2010. He earned his bachelor's degree in political science from Western Carolina University and a master's degree in political science from Northeastern Illinois University.

Prior to coming to Indiana State, Davis was the assistant to the vice president for student affairs at Northern Illinois University. While in that position, he served as primary adviser to student government and Greek life, and as an area coordinator for residential life. He also served as assistant to the president at Northern Illinois.
