Call to Order

The Indiana State University Board of Trustees met in regular session at 3:15 p.m. on Friday, December 18, 2009 in the State Room, Tirey Hall.

Trustees present: Mr. Alley, Mr. Baesler, Ms. Bell, Mr. Carpenter, Mr. Huckleby, Mr. Lowery and Mr. Pease. Trustees absent: Mr. Minas and Mr. Pillow.

President Bradley, Vice Presidents Beacon, Maynard, McKee, Maynard and Ms. Sacopulos, General Counsel and Secretary of the University were present. Also attending were Dr. Steve Lamb, Chairperson, University Faculty Senate, Ms. Roxanne Torrence, Chairperson, Support Staff Council and Mr. Michael Scott, President, Student Government Association.

There being a quorum present, Mr. Carpenter called the meeting to order.

Remarks

Report of the President of the Board (Mr. Carpenter)

Mr. Carpenter noted that Commencement was scheduled for Saturday, December 19, and congratulated all the graduates.

A seminar was presented to the Trustees earlier in the day by Ratio Architects on the campus master land use plan. The plan is exciting and long-range.

The Lilly Endowment has made another grant to ISU to support the Networks Financial Institute. The additional grant will allow the University to continue to develop excellence in this area.

Trent Miles, Head Football Coach, was asked by Mr. Carpenter to attend the meeting. ISU broke its losing streak at the Homecoming game this year. It was very exciting and everyone enjoyed that moment when the streak was broken. Thanks to everyone who participated in all the Homecoming events.

Governor Daniels has items from other universities in his office and Mr. Carpenter will present the Governor with a football that has been signed by the ISU players.

Coach Miles thanked everyone for backing the team and being supportive. He conveyed his hope that Homecoming would be the first of many wins to come, and hopes to see this ISU football displayed on a shelf in Governor Daniels's office to view.

The State continues to struggle with the budget, and in early December President Bradley, Diann McKee and Mr. Carpenter participated in a conference call with the Governor to learn that the Governor would announce a $150 million shortfall in the State budget. Universities will be required, in turn, to reduce their budgets. Mr. Carpenter noted that he expected the budget reduction proposals to be on the agenda for the February Board of Trustees meeting. It is not good news for the State or state universities. At this point in time the Governor has resisted tapping in to the State reserves.

There will be no salary increases this year at ISU. There is no assurance there will not be more cuts later. Mr. Carpenter emphasized that we keep the quality of education for our students high. The Trustees will do everything possible to support the university.

Mr. Carpenter asked Trustee Alley for a brief update on the March On! campaign. Mr. Alley reported that the campaign continues to have great success, having received several substantial gifts. Mr. Alley expressed his faith in the success of the campaign.

Report of the Chairperson of the Faculty Senate (Dr. Lamb)

Dr. Lamb reported that we have had a most strenuous time period since the last Board meeting. Virgil Sheets, last year's Senate Chair promised that this was going to be an uneventful year when he talked to me into serving – so much for that.

As we are all aware, the State has asked the University to refund nearly nine million dollars.

Nevertheless, the environment on campus remains positive. The Faculty Senate and the Support Staff/EAP Council are extremely pleased that the President has called upon us to give input into determining ways to achieve budgetary cuts.

The President continues to call upon us for serious input and appreciates seriously considered suggestions.

We are going through an arduous task at this moment with the development of a retirement incentive package that is working itself through faculty government. I am pleased with the debate that occurred at yesterday's Senate meeting over this issue. While some faculty members are disturbed, that embedded in the incentive retirement plan is a plan to reduce the future severance package from its present status, many faculty are recognizing the serious financial needs of the institution and are welcoming the President's leadership.

I am also aware that the President is trying extremely hard to provide a budgetary outline to the Trustees in a timely manner, and at the same time he is attempting to receive serious input from the governance standing bodies. I am committed to expediting this process as much as possible.

However, board members, I would like to ask you to allow the faculty standing committees and the Support Staff/EAP Council to have reasonable time to react to the initial draft developed by the President and those who have had an opportunity to give him counsel. We all must do everything possible to protect the positive environment that the President has created.

Despite the difficult economic hardship, the President has remained committed to bringing salaries up to 80% of market, as determined by the outside consultants, a move that is going to positively impact some 40 plus faculty members. I know the future goal is to have all employees at least at 90% of market.

The Faculty Senate did pass a motion yesterday that asked the administration to provide a filter on these equity adjustments. That is, any faculty member that was legitimately denied an across the board increase since 2000 because of inadequate performance was not to automatically receive an adjustment. This initiative has come from concerned faculty.

We also passed a curricular item yesterday that called for a merger of African and African American Studies with the Department of History, which will yield slight savings to the institution.

Melony Sacopulos is working effectively with Senate leadership to accomplish necessary editorial and organizational changes to the handbook.

Diann McKee again has proven herself to be a valuable resource for both the administration and the faculty in the design of a potential retirement incentive package given her detailed knowledge concerning possible implications of alternative proposals.

I would also like to thank Trustee Baesler for his support of the MBA Association.

Faculty members continue to distinguish themselves through their scholarly activities, teaching accomplishments, and service to society. As an example, I was pleased to see that an ISU professor's poem was read on Garrison Keiler's A Prairie Home Companion recently on National Public Radio. Countless examples of such recognition can be found regularly by reading ISU Today.

Report of the Chairperson of the Support Staff Council (Ms. Torrence)

On the agenda today are the proposed revisions to the Support Staff Council Bylaws. These revisions will include representation of administrative and professional staff. I appreciate the work of all who were involved in these revisions. I would like to personally thank the following members of the Staff Council Committee for their work on the revision: Co-Chair Louise Jackson; fellow Council officers Kelly Hall, Theresa Ortega and Leslie Krockenberger; Dave Taylor, Rex Kendall, Janis Halpern, Mark Schaffer and Debbie Nelson. A great deal of work went into the new bylaws and I would like to thank these individuals for their hard work and dedication to get these brought forward in a timely manner. Upon your approval the Council will begin the election process to take place in March that will include electing exempt staff to the Council.

The ISU Holiday Choir has been singing all around campus and Terre Haute in the past few weeks. The choir consists of faculty, staff, students and Mrs. Cheri Bradley. I would like to thank Coni Stanley-Cown for directing the choir and for the time and dedication she put into this year's choir. Each year, the choir increases the number of locations where they perform and also the number of members has increased and this is thanks to Coni.

The Support Staff Council met in a special session this week to discuss the retirement incentive proposal and is pleased that support staff has been included equally in this proposal. With the budget situation and the many rumors that have been circulating, I would like to thank President Bradley, Diann McKee and Wil Downs for their prompt response to the many emails and phone calls they have received from me. Your openness and sincerity is very much appreciated.

On behalf of the Support Staff Council, I would like to wish everyone happy holidays.

Report of the President of the Student Government Association (Mr. Scott)

Mr. Scott reported that Jules Hampton, an open preference freshman from Hammond, Indiana and a member of SGA Freshman Council is here with him this morning.

Since taking office in Spring 2008, I wanted to have a mentoring program for first-year students to assist with their transition to college through professional, personal, and academic development opportunities; as well as to prepare a core of students for leadership roles in SGA. In October, we conducted a search for six freshmen to participate in Emerging Leaders of SGA. Jules, who is my mentee, and five other first-year students were selected for this first-time program. We have arranged some special activities for them, including an etiquette dinner with the Vice Presidents. I want to reiterate our gratitude for their participation. The students thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity. Next semester the six mentees and four mentors will dine with President and Mrs. Bradley at Condit House. We are creating a ready crop of leaders, not just for SGA, but the skills gained through the Emerging Leaders program can be utilized in a variety of other endeavors. We look forward to some success stories from this group.

At the last Board meeting, I mentioned the need to revamp our judicial branch, with focus on making it functional and responsive to SGA and student needs. The Student Senate, at its last meeting, adopted Constitutional and Code language to accommodate this goal. We anticipate working with Vice President Ramey next semester on a final draft for implementation and presentation to the Board.

Also, Matt and I are working on a Student Rights and Responsibilities Statement with the assistance of Academic Affairs, various professors, and members of Faculty Senate. I want to thank Drs. Steve Lamb, Virgil Sheets, and Bob English for their assistance in this preliminary phase. It is a big project but I think collaboratively much can be accomplished in securing and defining the rights and roles of students at Indiana State.

Sycamore Blue Crew, the student pep club, completed its second successful season at the football games, and its inaugural volleyball season. Interest in athletics is increasing and as we move into the swing of basketball season we expect continued student attendance and enthusiasm.

Through collaboration with Sycamore Beat, Ryan and I have launched Sycamore Info a bi-weekly news video currently in developmental stages but available via YouTube. Again, we are continually attempting to reach students in new, innovative mediums.

I was asked recently with only three months left in my term, if I was beginning to wind down. My response was “the only time I wind down is at night, as each new day offers another opportunity to have an impact.” In that manner, we have scheduled several major events for next semester, including Sycamore Cinema, a movie series based out of the new University Hall Theater, Winter Fest, a repeat of this past Fall’s Rec Fest-the most attended event of my collegiate career-to occur during Sycamore Hoopla, the 5th Annual Black Leadership Conference, keynoted by Ambassador Andrew Young and BET & CNN Commentator Jeff Johnson. I would to thank President Bradley for his financial assistance, and several other programs and initiatives. SGA continues to appreciate the University's support for our endeavors and I can assure any doubters, I will continue to advocate and program for students as long as I serve in this position.

I want to address the recent news of our impending state of financial stress. While I know the sharing of $150 million among seven institutions means our share will not be negligible, and that few things are immune from another round of cuts, it is my hope that we recall our purpose as an institution-to provide an adequate education and well-rounded collegiate experience to students, who consider themselves customers. I would ask that we not turn to the least controversial cuts that tend to disproportionately affect student life.

Student life and academia are equally important components, and it is fortunate that few major changes to student life occurred as a result of the last round of reallocations and cuts. However, as we begin to sharpen the budget knife in an effort to meet the State's demands, I ask that student programming, services, and overall life proportionately share the imminent cuts-with resulting impact on those affected serving as the basis of decisions. Dr. Bradley, I would not want to be in your shoes right now as taking the easy road does not necessarily equal the best route, but it is in times of emergency and desperation that true leadership is shown. Evidenced in the last phase of cuts your administration had to deal with, feel assured that you have our confidence that reason and sound judgment will be used again in the coming weeks; and that the end result will be as fair as possible and mirror the purpose of the University.

Lastly, I want to congratulate all the fall graduates on their achievements and wish them much success in their future endeavors. Happy holidays to all. I hope you enjoy your winter break and look forward to seeing you next year.

Report of the President of the University (Dr. Bradley)

Governor Daniels has announced cuts of $150 million to Indiana Higher Education. ISU's portion of the cut is not yet confirmed but our proportional share would be around $9 million or $4.5 million per year.

As we work to address these cuts, my overarching goal will be to protect our ability to meet our mission. Our strategic plan will provide good guidance on how to proceed.

Student success will continue to come first while knowing that maintaining the ability to attract and retain great employees is a requirement for that success.

The elimination of positions is inevitable since most of our budget is dedicated to personnel.

Six months ago, the Vice Presidents were asked to propose reductions in the non-instructional budget of $10 million over the next five years as a method for funding the Strategic Plan. To meet the requirements of the current budget situation and identified priorities in the strategic plan, I have asked them to accelerate those cuts.

Beginning the first week of January, the Vice Presidents, Faculty Senate officers, the Chairperson of the Support Staff Council and an EAP representative will begin meeting to respond to and provide input on budget recommendations. A draft budget proposal will be made available to the entire campus by February 1 for discussion and comment prior to the February 19 meeting of the Board of Trustees. Further refinement will occur over the following weeks and final decisions about position elimination for the 2010-11 fiscal year will be made by April 1.

An important part of the short and long term strategy is a retirement incentive plan that has been presented for review to the Staff Council and the Faculty Senate. This program will provide more equality in retirement benefits for our employees while also helping the institution adjust to the vagaries of the State budgets while keeping the goals of our strategic plan at the forefront of our deliberations.

This program will provide a structure that allows the institution to realign our labor cost structure and help us reach our collective goals of providing better compensation while minimizing layoffs.

This is a difficult time, but with these challenges come many opportunities. I am confident ISU is on the right path. We are an institution that is improving, and one that will achieve its strategic goals. Long term vision is an important part of advancing this institution and cannot be sacrificed during these challenges.

We will also be launching a Good Ideas contest to solicit suggestions from faculty, staff and students on constructive ways to cut costs. The contest will launch today and suggestions may be submitted via a web form any time before the January 29, 2010 deadline. First place will receive $1,000; second place will receive $500 and third place will receive $300. Winners will be announced by February 15.

On the good news front, I am pleased to report that the Lilly Endowment, Inc., has awarded a $6 million grant to the Networks Financial Institute. This funding will allow NFI to further develop programs in student professional development, financial literacy and research and public policy. In addition, NFI will be moving the bulk of its operations to the ISU campus during the next two months. I am very appreciative of the continued support from the Lilly Endowment.

Nancy and Dale McKee have also made a generous gift as part of the March On! campaign that will create the McKee Nursing Center in Sandison Hall. This center will provide first and second-year nursing students with hands-on practice in areas related to their classroom studies from the convenience of their residence hall. This is just one example of how our housing can be adapted to assist our students in succeeding. I thank Nancy and Dale for once again demonstrating their interest in helping students succeed.

Earlier today, you heard a presentation of the new ISU Master Land Use Plan that will guide the physical development of our campus for the next 15 to 20 years. This is an exciting outline that, when coupled with our strategic plan, can make a significant difference to our students, faculty, staff and the community of Terre Haute. I would like to thank Ratio Architects, Vice President Diann McKee and the Facilities Management staff in particular Kevin Runion and Bryan Duncan for their work in developing this conceptual outline for our campus development.

I am pleased to have with us today, the Winter Commencement recipient of the President's Medal for Leadership, Scholarship and Service. Analyssa Noe is graduating tomorrow with a degree in legal studies with double minors in women's studies and civic leadership. As you may recall, she was named the Top Honors Student of the year (in the nation) last fall by the National Collegiate Honors Council. Analyssa has been extremely involved in the Center for Public Service and Community Engagement and many other organizations. Please join me in recognizing her.

Ms. Noe thanked President Bradley for inviting her today. I am honored to be a recipient of the Medal and to have had the opportunity to be involved in the programs in the Center for Public Service and Community Engagement.

I am also pleased to have Dr. Matthew Brennan here with us today. Dr. Brennan is a Professor of English and one of his poems, "Nights Our House Comes to Life," was featured on the December 12 broadcast of "The Writer's Almanac with Garrison Keillor" on National Public Radio. The work is from his book, "The House with the Mansard Roof," which was published this summer.

Dr. Brennan thanked President Bradley for the opportunity to be here this morning. He said the book is a collection of poems that he has written over the years. This particular poem was one he wrote about 25 years ago. He said he received an email from a friend letting him know about it and it was a happy surprise. A video of Mr. Keillor reading the poem was played.

Thank you, Dr. Brennan, for sharing your work with us and with the world.

I look forward to seeing all of you at Commencement tomorrow, and Cheri and I wish everyone a wonderful holiday and a happy new year.

Item (IV)(a)(iii): Doctor of Physical Therapy

Objectives:

The objective of this post-baccalaureate campus based doctor of physical therapy (DPT) is to provide competent health care providers who are skillfully able to effectively examine, evaluate, diagnose, and provide appropriate interventions for clients with primary, secondary, and tertiary physical impairments, functional limitations, and disabilities across the lifespan. The physical therapist has in-depth knowledge of cardiopulmonary, musculoskeletal, and neuromuscular disorders. The physical therapist functions as point-of-entry providers of physical rehabilitation and rehabilitation services. This program is part of the initiatives for the Indiana State Rural Health Innovation Collaborative (RHIC)

Clientele to be Served:

The clientele to be served will be graduate students who desire to pursue a professional career as a physical therapist by obtaining the terminal clinical degree. The American Physical Therapy Association (APTA) is the nationally recognized professional organization for physical therapists, yet each educational institution providing physical therapy education is governed by the Commission on Accreditation in Physical Therapy Education (CAPTE). Because of Vision 2020, an initiative to advance entry-level degree requirements from a master level to a doctoral level by the year 2020, CAPTE has coordinated a significant change in the academic preparation of physical therapists. Vision 2020 projects the desire that physical therapists be recognized as the practitioner of choice for the diagnosis, intervention, and prevention of physical limitations. This vision is based on the impetus of autonomous professional practice by physical therapists developed through the didactic and clinical education of a CAPTE accredited clinical doctoral degree program in physical therapy.

Curriculum:

Students are accepted into a full-time cohort model once a year starting with the first summer term. Students enroll in courses in the pre-determined sequence as outlined in the program of study. The DPT program will require 102 post baccalaureate graduate credit hours. There are a total of 29 credit hours of clinical, which excludes the hours for advanced human anatomy taken during the first summer term. A clinical credit hour at Indiana State University equates to three actual clinical contact hours. Some of the clinical hours are practice hours with simulations and volunteers, while the core of the clinical hours are spent with physical therapy preceptors providing supervised client care. The didactic and theory credit hours equates to 73 credit hours. The program does include credit hours for a culminating scholarly project.

Employment Possibilities:

Physical Therapy is an allied health profession that provides services to help restore function, physical therapists include acute care, pediatrics, geriatrics, short- and long-term rehabilitation, cardiopulmonary, sports medicine, fitness centers, and orthopedics.

The proposal has been approved by the Dean of the College of Nursing, Health, and Human Services, Faculty Senate, and has the support of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Recommendation: Approval of the Doctor of Physical Therapy, effective Fall 2010.

On a motion by Mr. Alley, seconded by Mr. Pease, the recommendation was approved.

Item (IV)(a)(iv): Master of Science in Physician Assistant Studies

Objectives:

The mission of the Indiana State University Physician Assistant Program is to create a student-centered educational environment that engages individuals to become compassionate, competent physician assistants who possess the clinical skills to contribute positively to the dynamic health care needs of rural and underserved populations. This program is part of the initiatives for the Indiana State Rural Health Innovation Collaborative (RHIC).

Clientele to be served:

The PA program will serve baccalaureate prepared students from a variety of backgrounds who may enroll directly after completion of their undergraduate degree or, as is often the case, after working in the health care fields for a variable length of time. Our goal is to find qualified Indiana residents for at least two-thirds of the available seats in the program. Regardless of age, gender or ethnicity, we intend to attract those persons wanting to serve their community as a provider of quality health care with an emphasis on evidence-based medicine and cultural competency. To that end we will make a concerted effort to attract and accept a diverse student body.

Curriculum:

The curriculum has been designed based on accreditation standards as published by the Accreditation Review Commission on Education for the Physician Assistant (ARC-PA) and will require 93 graduate credit hours in a campus-based program over seven consecutive semesters. The prerequisites include a strong foundation in the biological sciences, namely chemistry, anatomy, physiology, microbiology and statistics. Experiential learning in the clinical environment is accomplished during eleven four week rotations of fulltime clinical preceptorship in at least eight medical specialties. There is no option for advanced placement or for part-time study. Our students are encouraged not to work during the entire program due to the curricular intensity.

Employment opportunities:

Certified physician assistants (PA-C) find employment opportunities in a whole range of medical settings. Once certified, a PA is qualified to work in surgical subspecialties as well as just about every area of clinical medicine as well as in academia. PAs are employed wherever a physician might be employed. According to the Indiana Workforce Development's High-Wage High-Demand Occupations report for 2006-2016 there were 283 openings for PAs and a projected growth rate of 26.9%. The U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics listed physician assistants among the fastest growing occupations for 2006 - 2016 in the November 2007 Monthly Review.

The proposal has been approved by the Dean of the College of Nursing, Health, and Human Services, Faculty Senate, and has the support of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Recommendation: Approval of the Master of Science in Physician Assistant Studies, effective Fall 2010.

On a motion by Mr. Alley, seconded by Mr. Pease, the recommendation was approved.

Item (IV)(a)(v): Doctor of Nursing Practice

In order to help our society better meet the continually changing health care needs of rural and underserved communities, the United States needs more and better educated mid-level providers. There is a corresponding shortage of doctorally educated nurse practitioner providers in the country. The proposed Doctor of Nursing Program (DNP) program is created in an effort to help meet both health and education needs.

The Wabash Valley in the West Central region has 11 rural counties of which 8 are either Medically Underserved Areas (MUAs) or Health Professional Shortage Areas (HPSAs). The multifaceted health care needs of Indiana citizens in poor rural counties are growing throughout the state. The DNP program will address the health care needs of these underserved and rural populations. There will be a solid evidence based practice base that explores the research utilized in health care for the rural and underserved populations and ways to influence the quality of health care through epidemiological incidence and the Healthy People 2020 findings as well as approaches to their prevention of health problems and cure. The rural health practicum will focus on the resolution and study of these health problems and social-political mechanisms the DNP can influence change. The outcomes of practice showing health care disparities placed on certain groups in rural and underserved areas--women, children, elderly, and minorities--will be evaluated and published by student and faculty.

Indiana State University (ISU) will work with the other state universities in demonstrating capabilities and standards of practice for this role. The DNP takes the evidence based research and interprets it into practice. It looks at the efficacy of the research that the nurse researchers and others have conducted. Our ISU faculty are a blend of PhD and DNP as well as MSN prepared practitioners. This is a needed phenomenon as we move to the DNP program. The 39 cr. hrs. build on the 48-51 cr. hrs. with 765 hrs. of clinical practice in the FNP concentration of the Indiana State MS in nursing for 1500 hrs of total clinical practice. The competencies of this new practitioner are based on the National Organization of Nurse Practitioner Faculty (NONPF) Doctoral of Nursing Practice Entry Level Competencies (2006) the American Association of Colleges of Nursing (AACN) Essentials of Doctoral Education for Advanced Nursing Practice (2006) in Appendix 1. The DNP is the scholarship of practice just as physicians, psychologists, lawyers, pharmacists, and physical therapists are a practice degree. A number of societal, scientific, and professional developments have stimulated this major paradigm change in graduate education. One major impetus for change was the AACN's decision in October 2004 to adopt the goal that preparation for specialization in nursing should occur at the doctoral level by 2015. (AACN, DNP Roadmap Task Force Report, October 20, 2006)

The degree is not the role. This DNP program will work with the communities it serves in finding how to make health care practice better, how practice identifies needs, and then disseminate their findings and develop this role and this practice. The journal, Clinical Scholars Review: The Journal of Doctoral Nursing Practice, is produced by Columbia School of Nursing and published by Springer Publishing Company, 2008, will be one in which we will promote publications by faculty and students. How and when certification of this role will occur is an ongoing discussion—certification is viewed as a means of distinction to patients and payers as well as a way of assuring the public of quality and reliable standards for these new clinical nurse experts. The AACN is still upholding the 2015 date as the last year that the American Nurses Credentialing Center will certify master's level advanced practice nurses.

In 2006, Indiana State University FNP Program surveyed its graduates on their programs strengths and weakness. Also an added question was: Are they planning on furthering your education through doctoral study (if they didn't already have a doctorate). Of the 42 graduates, 38 planned to continue their education (2 had already had a doctorate and one was working on a doctorate) and 35 would do their program at ISU if one existed in next 5-10 years. Over the last two years the faculty has attended meetings discussing the varied ways to attain the DNP. Our faculty are utilizing AACN's template of post-Master preparation with the FNP as the masters concentration. The curriculum and courses are developed to achieve this expert in evidence based practice and dynamic leader and change agent in nursing prepared at the doctoral level. The DNP program will serve Master of Science in nursing (MSN) prepared nurses who are currently practicing as nurse practitioners and have a desire to work with clients in underserved and rural communities. Nurse educators who also wish to pursue a terminal clinical degree will also select the DNP as an education option. Many nursing programs such as Indiana State University are recognizing the DNP for tenure track positions.

The proposal has been approved by the Dean of the College of Nursing, Health, and Human Services, Faculty Senate, and has the support of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Recommendation: Approval of the Doctor of Nursing Practice, effective Fall 2010.

On a motion by Mr. Alley, seconded by Mr. Pease, the recommendation was approved.

Item (IV)(a)(vi): Policy Regarding Awarding of Tenure (Handbook Sect III-4)

The University Faculty Senate approved the following changes in the ISU Handbook language regarding the tenure extension policy. The vote was 24-0-0 on October 15, 2009.

Starting at 3rd paragraph

Current:

Candidates may elect to extend the tenure probationary period for a maximum of two years in the following circumstances:

1. They are the primary or co-equal caregiver of a newborn or newly adopted child (one per year per child).
2. They are the primary or co-equal caregiver of a seriously ill spouse, partner or other immediate family member (defined as child, parent, or other family member).

Medical certification from the ill person's health care provider shall be presented within fifteen calendar days after the extension is requested. Additional medical opinion may be requested at the university's expense. The candidate shall consult with his/her department chairperson to receive support of the extension. The decision to extend the tenure period will be reported to the Dean and the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs. Candidates who have elected extensions carry out their regular full-time responsibilities, and continue to undergo annual evaluations for reappointment through the extended probationary period. In their tenure-year review, candidates who have elected extension are expected to meet only criteria stated in University-approved tenure policies and letters of appointment.

During the probationary period, a candidate for tenure may apply for leave under the Family and Medical Leave Act, or for leave without pay in the event of a birth or adoption, or a family illness (see pp. III-14, IV-16 & 17, and Appendix C). In such cases tenure eligibility will be delayed automatically as specified below.

The language below should replace the sections above (para 3-5) within the Policy Regarding Awarding of Tenure (in Academic Policies; Handbook Section III-4)

Revised:

During the probationary period, a candidate for tenure may apply for leave under the Family and Medical Leave Act, or for leave without pay in the event of a birth or adoption, or a family illness (see Faculty & Academic Policies: Leaves without Pay; Compensation & Benefits: Faculty Leave Policy; and Family Medical Leave Act Guidelines). In such cases tenure eligibility will be delayed automatically (as specified below).

Candidates who qualify for leave under FMLA, even if they do not take a leave, may elect a one-year extension of the tenure probationary period by notification to their Department Chair who will transmit their decision to the Dean and the Provost and Vice-President for Academic Affairs.

Candidates with other extraordinary circumstances (e.g., death of a child, spouse or partner, catastrophic loss due to fire/flood/tornado, etc) may request a one-year extension of their probationary period (Such requests are initiated at the Department Level and reviewed as a normal personnel matter, e.g., Personnel Committee, Department Chair, Dean, Provost & VP Academic Affairs).

A maximum of two, one-year extensions may be taken.

Certification of the qualifying circumstances shall be obtained within fifteen calendar days after the extension is elected or requested.

In consultation with their Chair, candidates who request or elect extensions, who are not taking a leave, shall maintain a workload that demonstrates continued commitment to their faculty responsibilities. Faculty receiving extensions shall continue to undergo annual evaluations for reappointment. Candidates on conditional reappointment must demonstrate progress toward meeting stipulated conditions for continued reappointment during this extended period.

In their tenure-year review, any extensions a candidate may have received are immaterial to the tenure decision. Candidates are expected to meet only the criteria stated in University-approved tenure policies and letters of appointment.

Recommendation: Approval of the modifications to the tenure probationary policy and the changes to the ISU Handbook effective January 1, 2010.

On a motion by Mr. Alley, seconded by Ms. Bell, the recommendation was approved.

Item (IV)(a)(vii):
Revision to Contract Approval and Signatory Policy

It is proposed that the Contract Approval and Signatory Policy be revised to address statutory modifications, to more accurately reflect current practices, and to streamline reporting of contract activity to the Board of Trustees and ISU administrators.

620.2.3.1 Statutory Authority for Facilities Projects. Authority for ISU to contract for professional or expert services, for new construction projects, to rehabilitate or repair capital facilities of the university, and to bond such projects is covered under a variety of Indiana statutes, and special rules apply to these situations. Special rules also apply to transactions relating to real estate, including leases, and to any transaction that would involve a sale of ISU assets.

620.2.3.1.1 Office of the General Counsel; ISU Treasurer.

Individuals with responsibility for these projects shall communicate and coordinate with the Office of the General Counsel and the University Treasurer. Individuals are strictly prohibited from altering State property without appropriate approval.

620.2.3.2 Fees, Bonding, and Compensation and Benefits. Indiana law vests authority in the ISU Board of Trustees to approve any student fees, other fees, bonding, and issues relating to compensation and benefits of university employees. ISU employees are strictly prohibited from implementing any fees (except where authorization is delegated by the ISU Board of Trustees), bonding, or making any determinations relating to compensation and benefits that are not first expressly authorized by the ISU Board of Trustees.

620.2.4 Budgeted Expenditures. Any contract that binds ISU to an expenditure of funds previously approved through the departmental budgetary process is subject to the approval and signatory authority as set in Section 620.1.

620.2.5 Unbudgeted Expenditures. Any contract that binds ISU to an expenditure of funds that has not previously been approved through the departmental budgetary process must be approved by the Treasurer for verification of the funding source. The Treasurer's signature is required on the standard routing form prior to execution of the contract by ISU or of any change orders or amendments to the original contract. A 'notice to proceed' is considered a contractual commitment.

620.2.6 Delegation of Authority. Those individuals vested with signatory authority in Section 620.1 may delegate that authority for specific categories of contracts upon completion of the Signatory Delegation, a standard delegation form developed by the Office of the General Counsel. The delegation shall be specific as to the scope and limitations of the delegated authority and shall be limited to only those directly reporting to the delegator. Executed Signatory Delegation forms shall be maintained in the Office of the General Counsel, and a delegation of signatory authority will not be effective unless the form has been forwarded in accordance with this policy.

620.2.7 Standard Routing Form. Contracts shall be routed through appropriate ISU departments for review in advance of final approval and signature. The Office of the General Counsel, with input from functional areas, shall develop a standard routing form for all contracts. The standard routing form shall generally include review by Risk Management, Business Affairs, and the Office of the General Counsel, and shall act as an information tool for Vice Presidents.

The standard routing form shall be utilized for all agreements, except for those contracts subject to the Purchasing Policy and those contracts approved through Sponsored Programs.

620.2.7.1 Required Approvals. Required Approvals as set forth in Section 620.1 shall be noted on the standard routing form in advance of execution of a contract.

620.2.8 Additional Delegation of Signatory Authority by Board of Trustees. If an independent delegation of authority relating to a particular area or matter is vested in the Treasurer by the Trustees, then the Treasurer may act under such delegation of authority, reporting results to the Trustees at the next meeting following action taken by the Treasurer pursuant to such independent delegation of authority.

620.2.9 Reporting Requirement. All contracts entered into that do not require Trustee approval must be reported at the Trustee meeting following the date upon which the contract is entered into, with the exception of contracts falling under the ISU Purchasing Policy, which contains other reporting requirements. Persons initiating contracts must forward a copy of the executed contract to the Secretary of the University for inclusion in the Board of Trustees' materials.

Item (IV)(a)(viii): Revision to ISU Purchasing Policy and Guidelines

It is proposed that the ISU Purchasing Policy and Guidelines be revised to address the inclusion of consulting agreements in conjunction with modifications of the Contract Approval and Signatory Policy.

Recommendation: Approval of the revised ISU Purchasing Policy and Guidelines, effective January 1, 2010.

On a motion by Mr. Pease, seconded by Mr. Baesler, the recommendation was approved.

Recommendation: Approval of the revised Drug-Free Workplace Policy, effective January 1, 2010.

Item (IV)(a)(x):
Staff Salary Schedule

Over the past 24 months, the University, in conjunction with Mercer Consulting, has been conducting a comprehensive review of the current staff compensation and classification program for the purpose of making improvements and enhancements. The goal of the study was to ensure that we have a competitive, consistent and equitable program reflective of best practices and sound design principles. The initial phase in the implementation of this program establishes the new ISU Staff Salary Schedule at 80% of the market as determined by Mercer Consulting and ensures that all eligible employees are compensated at the new minimum salary within each pay grade. The staff salary schedule shown below is recommended to be effective with the first day of the first pay period in 2010 (December 26, 2009 for non-exempt staff, January 1, 2010 for exempt staff).

Recommendation: Approval of the staff salary schedule at 80% of market as shown below.

On a motion by Mr. Baesler, seconded by Ms. Bell, the recommendation was approved.

Item (IV)(a)(xi): Campus Master Plan

In consultation with Ratio Architects, the University has developed a campus master plan with a fifteen to twenty year planning horizon. The master plan builds upon previous campus master plans developed in 1986 and subsequently updated in 1996. The 2009 master plan calls for the renovation of several existing academic facilities, student housing, and athletic venues. An improvement of wayfinding and vehicular circulation, particularly for first time visitors, is also included.

Recommendation: Acceptance of the 2009 campus master plan.

On a motion by Mr. Pease, seconded by Mr. Huckleby, the recommendation was approved.

Item (IV)(a)(xii): Bank Accounts for Health Care Payment Processing

The University has recommended a change in its health claims processor to CIGNA Healthcare. In order to facilitate payments to CIGNA, it will be necessary to establish two new bank accounts with JP Morgan Chase. The first account is needed to process medical claims and the second account is used for the Voluntary Flexible Spending Account. These separate bank accounts are necessary so that funds are not co-mingled. The current accounts being used by Principal will be closed following the final processing of claims.

Recommendation: Authorization for the President and/or Vice President for Business Affairs, Finance, and University Treasurer to establish two new bank accounts with JP Morgan Chase for the purpose of processing medical claims with CIGNA Healthcare and to designate individuals who will be authorized to make electronic transfers to and from these accounts.

On a motion by Mr. Baesler, seconded by Ms. Bell, the recommendation was approved.

Item (IV)(a)(xiii): Federal Building Renovation

The 2009 Indiana General Assembly approved the expenditure of and related bonding authority under IC 21-34 for $20,000,000 for the renovation of the former Terre Haute Post Office and Federal Building to accommodate the Donald W. Scott College of Business. The project will provide for major upgrades in the building systems of the facility thereby improving temperature control, enhancing air quality, and access to technology. The existing interior spaces of the building will be reconfigured to enable academic programs to function more effectively and to meet ADA and OSHA standards. Funding for the project will consist of $10,000,000 of bonding authority eligible for fee replacement and $10,000,000 of private donor support.

Recommendation: Authorization for the President of the University and/or Treasurer of the Board of Trustees to request from the Commission for Higher Education, the State Budget Committee, and the Governor of the State of Indiana authority to expend up to $20,000,000 for the renovation of the former Terre Haute Post Office and Federal Building to accommodate the Donald W. Scott College of Business. The President of the University and/or Treasurer is further authorized to take the following action:

- a. To develop a plan of financing for the renovation of the former Terre Haute Post Office and Federal Building as governed by the following resolution and to obtain all necessary State approvals; and
- b. To enter contracts to design, construct, equip, and to finance the renovation of the former Terre Haute Post Office and Federal Building once State approval has been obtained.

DECLARATION OF OFFICIAL INTENT TO REIMBURSE EXPENDITURES

WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees (the "Board") of the Indiana State University Board of Trustees (the "University") has determined that a necessity exists to acquire, construct, equip and/or rehabilitate the facilities described on Exhibit A hereto (the "Project"); and

WHEREAS, the University intends to acquire, construct, equip and/or rehabilitate the Project, and reasonably expects to reimburse certain costs of the Project with proceeds of debt to be incurred by the University; and

WHEREAS, the University expects to issue debt not exceeding $20,000,000 in aggregate principal amount, plus costs incidental to the financing as authorized by statute, for purposes of financing, refinancing or reimbursing costs of the Project;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the University declares its official intent to acquire, construct, equip and/or rehabilitate the Project described in Exhibit A; to reimburse certain costs of acquiring, constructing, equipping and/or rehabilitating the Project with proceeds of debt to be incurred by the University; and to issue debt not exceeding $20,000,000 in aggregate principal amount, plus costs incidental to the financing as authorized by statute, for purposes of financing, refinancing or reimbursing costs of the Project.

Dated: December 18, 2009.

EXHIBIT A

THE PROJECT

The project involves major upgrades in the building systems of the former Terre Haute Post Office and Federal Building located at 7th and Cherry Streets thereby improving temperature control, enhancing air quality, and enhancing access to technology to accommodate the Donald W. Scott College of Business. The existing interior spaces of the building also will be reconfigured to enable academic programs to function more effectively and to meet ADA and OSHA standards.

On a motion by Mr. Alley, seconded by Ms. Bell, the recommendation was approved.

Revision of Support Staff Council Bylaws

The Support Staff Council has worked with the administration over a period of months, and in conjunction with the revision of employment classifications for the university, to include all non-faculty and non-executive employees of the university. The result is a new structure that is more inclusive.

Recommendation: Approval of the reorganized Staff Council Bylaws, in such form that is approved by the Support Staff Council, the Vice President for Finance, and General Counsel.

On a motion by Mr. Pease, seconded by Mr. Alley, the recommendation was approved.

Item (IV)(a)(xvi):
University Health Benefits Plan, 2010

For 2010, several changes in health plan coverage are proposed:

Employee Health Coverage:

It is recommended that the Third-Party Administrator (TPA) of the University's self-insured medical plan be changed to CIGNA. CIGNA provides a larger network (CIGNA Open Access Plus) which includes the providers in the Sagamore network that is currently used by ISU. CIGNA's network provides deeper discounts which should save money for both the employee and the University. CIGNA also integrates wellness initiatives by utilizing health improvement strategies for the overall health and well being of the employees and dependents. There is no change in covered items for 2010.

Employee Prescription Drug Card:

The State of Indiana Aggregate Prescription Purchasing Program (IAPPP) will continue to provide prescription drug services for 2010 with no change in coverage. Medco has replaced Anthem as the Pharmacy Benefits Manager.

Retirees Over Age 65:

Coverage for retirees who are over age 65 will be moved to a fully-insured Medicare Supplement and Prescription Drug program administered by NEBCO/AmWins effective January 1, 2010.

Retirees who are not yet 65 will be retained on the University's self-funded medical coverage plan.

Dental Coverage:

The University's dental coverage will continue to be processed by Delta Dental of Indiana with no change in coverage or increase in fees.

Administrative Fees

The monthly per capital administrative fees for medical, including network access, dental and reinsurance costs are listed below.

	Actual 2009 Plan Year	Proposed 2010 Plan Year
Active/Early Retiree	$16.45	$36.00
Retiree Over age 65	18.45	not applicable
Management Fee	1.75	not applicable
Network Access	4.00	not applicable
Stop Loss Interface Fee	.95	not applicable
Specific Stop Loss	16.70	24.00*
Dental	3.37	3.37

*This amount is an estimate; the increase is projected to be up to 40 percent higher than the rate for 2009. Negotiations will continue during December in an attempt to reduce the increase for 2010 and will be reported at a later date.

Contribution Rates:

Total 2009 claims and expenses to date have been 5.87 percent higher than the expenses for the same time period of 2008. The University's benefits consultant has estimated that a six (6) percent increase in rates be implemented for 2010. The 2010 rates are shown below.

Recommendation: Approval of the changes in the University Health Plans for retirees and employees as outlined above with an increase in rates as described, effective January 1, 2010.

On a motion by Mr. Alley, seconded by Ms. Bell, the recommendation was approved.
