Description of the Presentation:

Chip Helm will be presenting “Everyone is in Sales,” a motto he strongly believes in. Chip will demonstrate the “KISS” method (keep it simple stupid) to describe the life lessons and behaviors that can make you successful for your life and career. His presentation will be followed by a networking session where students will interact with the companies in attendance to build relationships that have led to many job placements in the past.

Chip Helm holds a BA in Biology from Indiana University and an MBA from the University of South Florida. From a Dental School drop-out to a National Sales Manager of a multi-billion-dollar medical device company, Chip has honed his sales skills from the ground up. If it is personal branding, practicing humility, or following-up and following-through, his practical advice is applicable to anyone at any stage in their career. His mentoring, and leadership has helped thousands of students, and colleagues over his last three decades in sales. “No matter the career you have chosen, YOU ARE IN SALES.”

Training Opportunity (11:00 AM & 1:00 PM):

Chip and his respected colleague, Melahni Ake, will be offering a workshop focused on building personal branding. Melahni is a passionate executive leader who is an expert in building positive cultures with people and processes that influence and impact performance. The workshop will supply you with the tools to immediately apply and design your life and career for success. You will learn what personal brand is, how to build and sustain your brand, and how to get it back when you lose your brand. Every attendee will receive access to a downloadable “Personal Branding” podcast where Melahni Ake and Chip Helm teach and explore lessons on personal branding for your life and career. Interested partners can contact the SNC for details on how to attend.

Your investment is only $200 for a table and one participant and $75 per person after the first or you can become a sponsor of this event (see other side).
