WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH COLLOQUIUM 2017

Indiana State University

March 27, 28, 29 & 30
Cunningham Memorial Library Events Area, and Room 028

All events are free and open to the public.
Monday, March 27

9:00-9:50
Library Events Area
Movie: Miss Representation This documentary explores media literacy and the connections between the portrayal of women and political efficacy.
GNDR 200-003 Ralph Leck
Room 028

Movie: Hester Street (pt. 1) This black and white film, in Yiddish with English subtitles, is about assimilation and changing gender relations in an immigrant Jewish family in New York City at the turn of the century.
HIST 113-004 Ruth Fairbanks

10-10:50
Library Events Area
Julie Laut “Defining a Nation: Women and Gender in Pre-Independence India”
GNDR 301 Ruth Fairbanks GND 200-006 Ralph Leck
Room 028

HIST 113 Michelle Morahn, “Kate Debs: A True Partner”

12:00-12:50
Library Events Area
HIST 113 Michelle Morahn, “Kate Debs: A True Partner”
GNDR 200 Ruth Fairbanks

Monday March 27 continued

1-1:50
Library Events Area
Guest Speakers from Higher Education Program, Indiana Women’s Prison,
Indianapolis. “Mass Incarceration and the ‘Convict Race’”
Panelists: Char’Dae Avery, Connie Bumgardner, D’Antonette Burns, Dani
Green, Michelle Jones and Sarah Pender. Facilitated by Kelsey Kauffman.
CRIM 316-001 Mary Ellen Doucette-Lunstrum
GNDR 200 Ruth Fairbanks SOC 443 Amanda Lubold
Room 028

Michael Deem “Basic Elements of Feminist Ethics”
PHIL 201 Michael Deem

2-2:50
Library Events Area
Michael Deem “Basic Elements of Feminist Ethics”
PHIL 201 Michael Deem

6:30
Library Events Area
Debra Collins, Cancer Center at the University of Kansas Medical Hospital, “Solving the Mystery of Breast Cancer and Genetics”

9th Annual Women in Science Speaker, co-sponsored by the Biology Department, the Honors Program, Office of the President, the College of Graduate and Professional Studies, the Center for Community Engagement, and the Department of Sciences and Mathematics at Saint Mary-of-the-Woods College

Cookies at 6:30, lecture starts at 7pm
Tuesday, March 28

9:30-10:45

Library Events Area

Marsha Miller, “Barriers and Bias: the Status of Women in Leadership”
Special session hosted by American Association of University Women

11:15

Library Events Area

Guest Speaker: Hanna Brant “Women in Political Office: Representation and Policy Change”
PSCI 107-002 Carly Schmitt SOWK 270-002 Rhonda Impink,

12:30-1:45

Library Events Area

Debra Israel “Women, Families and Work”
ECON 301 Debra Israel

2-3:15

Library Events Area

Guest Speaker: Hanna Brant “Women in Political Office: Representation and Policy Change”
PSCI 107-001 Carly Schmitt SOWK 270-001 Rhonda Impink

3:30-4:45

Library Events Area

“Feminist Parents and Talking about Sexuality and Sex” Panelists: Debra Israel, Veanne Anderson, Eric Anderson, Bridget Roberts-Pittman
COMM 483 Shana Kopaczewski

Room 028

Movie: Free Angela Davis and All Political Prisoners: A documentary about Angela Davis’s social activism and how it led to her being on the FBI’s Most Wanted List.
PHIL 324-001 Namita Goswami

Tuesday, March 28, continued

5:00-6:00

Library Events Area

Feminist Majority reception and discussion with guest Hanna Brant

Wednesday, March 29

9:00-9:50

Library Events Area

Movie: The Raging Grannies followed by discussion led by Tina Kruger
GNDR 200-003 Ralph Leck
Room 028

Hester Street (pt. 2 and discussion).
HIST 113-004 Ruth Fairbanks

10:00-10:50

Library Events Area

Guest Speaker: Oleksandra Tarkhanova, “Women in Post-Soviet Ukraine: Between Gender Equality and Traditional Family Values”

Ms. Tarkhanova’s visit to ISU is sponsored by ISU’s International Studies Program in the Department of Multidisciplinary Studies and the Russian and East European Institute at Indiana University
GNDR 301 Ruth Fairbanks GNDR 200-003 Ralph Leck

11-11:50

Library Events Area

Reception and open discussion with Oleksandra Tarkhanova.
Room 028

Movie: The Village Where Men are Forbidden, documentary on Kenyan women.
AFRI 222 Andrea Arrington
Wednesday, March 29 continued

12-12:50
Library Events Area
Linda Maule "To Do Justly: Florence Allen and the Law"
GNDR 200 Ruth Fairbanks
Room 028
Movie: Witches in Exile, documentary on women in Northern Ghana
AFRI 498 Andrea Arrington

1-1:50
Library Events Area
Gender and Stratification "Lessons from Malala: A History of Girl's Education in Developing Countries"
SOC 443 Amanda Lubold GNDR 200 Ruth Fairbanks
Room 028
Michael Deem "Feminist Ethics: Prospects and Problems"
PHIL 201 Michael Deem GNDR 200 Ruth Fairbanks

2-2:50
Room 028
Michael Deem, "Feminist Ethics: Prospects and Problems"
PHIL 201 Michael Deem

2-4:00
Library Events Area
Susan Kray, "Hollywood History of Women Film Characters"
COMM 445 Susan Kray

Thursday, March 30

9:30-10:45
Library Events Area
Movie: no más bebés This film follows a small group of Mexican immigrant women who sue their doctors and the government after they realize they were sterilized without their knowledge or consent when they had their babies in LA in the 1960s and 1970s.
Room 028
HIST 334-002 Lisa Phillips

12:30-1:45
Library Events Area

Panelists: Rheann Kelly, Lori Record, Christina Kovats, Natalie Medley, Lara Campbell, Molly Whitted and Michelle Williams. Facilitated by Kelsey Kauffman
SOC 220-001 Charles Norman

2:00-3:15
Library Events Area
Movie Twelve Years a Slave (film contains disturbing content) This film is about a free black man, Solomon Northup, who is kidnapped and sold into slavery.
HIST 334-001 Lisa Phillips
Room 028
Susan Livingston, "Women's Bloody Good Art: A Brief History of Menstrual"
GNDR 200-001 Susan Livingston
Thank you to our generous sponsors:

Indiana State University Center for Community Engagement

Gender Studies in the Department of Multidisciplinary Studies

American Democracy Project

Cunningham Memorial Library

College of Arts and Sciences

Foundational Studies

American Association of University Women

Feminist Majority ISU

Department of History and African and African American Studies

Department of Communication

Department of Criminology

Special thanks to Dara Middleton, Marsha Miller, Carly Schmitt, Kate Forness, Brianna Nichols, Kelsey Kauffman, Heather Miklozak, Michael Deem, Rick Lotspeich, Barb McNeill, the presenters of these sessions, all the faculty who brought their students to this colloquium and GNDR 200 student artists.