

Syc Creations is a digital design creative group within Student Media. Students in Syc Creations provide fee-based services to clients on the campus of ISU* as well as nonprofits throughout the greater Wabash Valley. From video production, to graphic design, to web design and development, Syc Creations seeks to be a one-stop shop for your digital creative needs. Students working for Syc Creations come from diverse majors, including computer engineering, graphic design, communication and business.

Dr. Chad Clark, Student Digital Media Manager
chad.clark@indstate.edu

Graphic design and web development for university departments are provided by the Office of Communications and Marketing.*

"Yearbook has given me a sense of leadership. I've learned how to delegate and how to be less passive. I have also become a better guide to the people I work with."

— Melanie Stone, editor at The Sycamore

WZIS-FM is a student-staffed radio station on the air 24 hours a day, offering a variety of music from the '80s, '90s and today, as well as news and sports. Tune in to 90.7 or listen live at wzisfm.org. Z90.7 FM is always looking for students to help on-air or behind the scenes. Our group is open to all majors. We offer training and no experience is required. If you would like to get involved or want to know more, stop by or send us an email. Drop in for a visit. We're located in Dreiser Hall, Rooms 215-230.

Rich Green, WZIS Station Manager
richard.green@indstate.edu

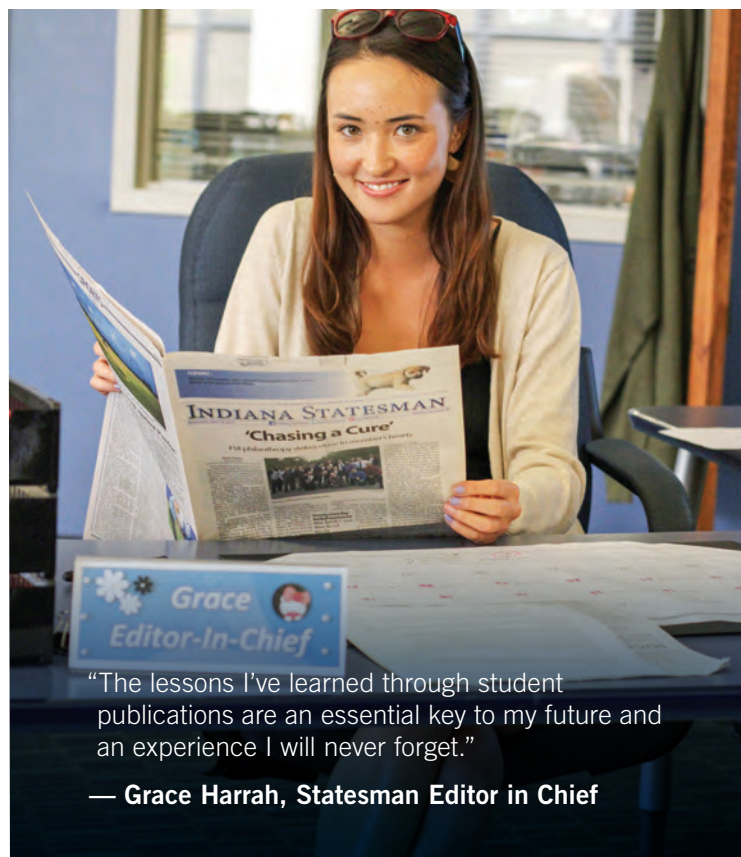

"Joining WZIS and Student Media has been the best decision I ever made. I have met so many great people and have received so many opportunities within my field."

— Corey Clark, Student Station Manager WZIS

Student Publications includes The Sycamore yearbook and the Indiana Statesman student newspaper. The Sycamore is published annually in the spring. It can be viewed free online at sycamoreyearbook.com and also purchased through the same site. The Statesman is published three days a week during the fall and spring semesters and twice during the summer. The Statesman can be found at many campus locations and also at indianastatesman.com. If you're interested in sales, photography, graphic design, editing or writing, visit Student Publications in Room 143 on the first floor of Hulman Memorial Student Union.

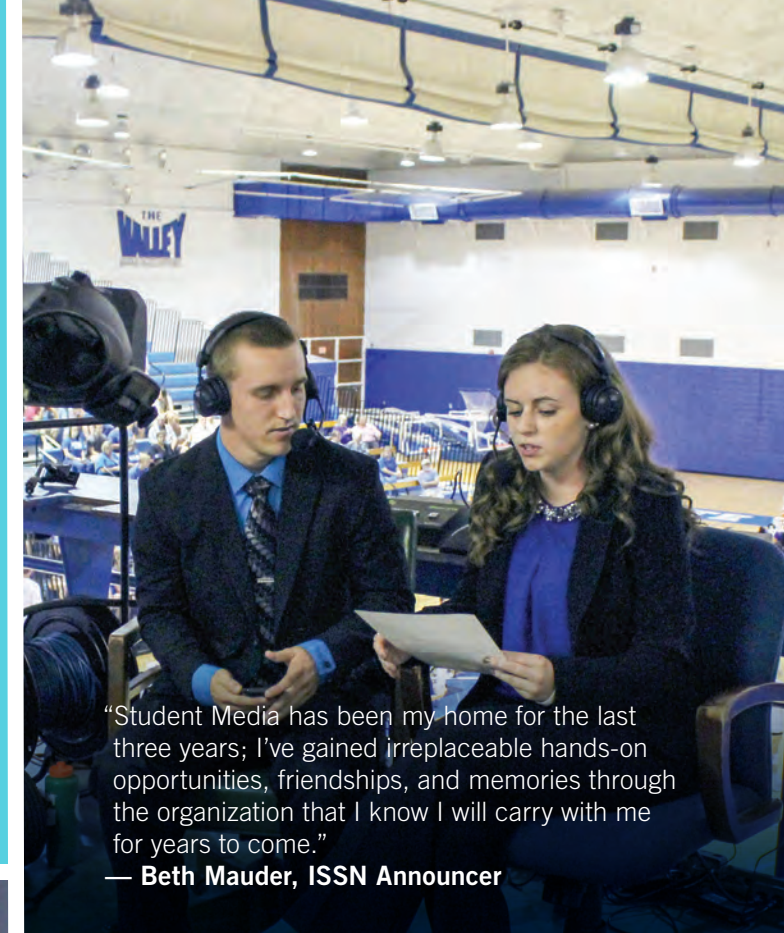

Martha Milner, Director of Student Publications
martha.milner@indstate.edu

The Sycamore INDIANA STATESMAN

"The lessons I've learned through student publications are an essential key to my future and an experience I will never forget."

— Grace Harrah, Statesman Editor in Chief

"Student Media has been my home for the last three years; I've gained irreplaceable hands-on opportunities, friendships, and memories through the organization that I know I will carry with me for years to come."

— Beth Mauder, ISSN Announcer

The Indiana State Sports Network provides live video coverage of intercollegiate athletics at ISU. Programs are provided to ESPN3 under an agreement with the Missouri Valley Conference. Students work in all capacities, including camera operator, announcer, graphics and replay operators, audio engineer and technical director. Students produce live game coverage for football, soccer, volleyball, softball, men's and women's basketball, and baseball.

Seth Payne, Sports Video Manager
seth.payne@indstate.edu

"Working in Student Media has given me the professional skills and real-world experience that will make me successful after graduation."

— Caleb Hess, Syc Creations Student Lead

“Student Media has helped me gain scholarships so that I can continue attending the school I love.”
— Kylee Leverett, Sycamore Video General Manager

Sycamore Video is a student group that fosters campus-based video production, encourages electronic media excellence and provides experiential opportunities for students who want to participate in both television and film production and produce creative, professional programming. We're open to all majors. Students produce live weekly newscasts and interviews in Television Studio B located in Dreiser Hall, Room 102. Our video editing facilities are in Dreiser Hall, Room 234.

Sycamore Video also sponsors an annual student Video Expo for aspiring filmmakers. Check us out on campus cable Channel 20-1 (SVTV 20) in the residence halls, Channel 76 on the network cable service or at sycamorevideo.com.

Jeffrey Perkins, Student Video Production Manager
jeffrey.perkins@indstate.edu

indstate.edu/cas/student-media

Students at Indiana State University engage in a wide range of media-production activities. From their first days on campus until their last, students are involved in creating works for the student body, the campus and the community. Along the way, students get hands-on experience producing materials for a variety of media outlets, including a newspaper, yearbook, cable television channel, sports video network, radio station, websites, and a commercial video production unit.