

CONNECTING the DOTS

for Child and Youth Wellness Conference

BAYH COLLEGE of EDUCATION — INDIANA STATE UNIVERSITY — OCTOBER 15, 2019

REGISTER EARLY!

HERITAGE LOUNGE AND BALLROOM, TIREY HALL, 220 NORTH 7TH STREET

Connecting the Dots for Child and Youth Wellness is a professional development opportunity for professionals and practitioners in the medical and education fields and students, parents, and individuals interested in connecting the dots for children and youth with trauma. The Bayh College of Education wants to support individuals who have experience with and need information about the effects of trauma.

Presentations will be given by professionals who have extended experience with and are informed about past and current trends in the area of trauma. There will be a one-hour keynote address and a late afternoon panel discussion plus three hours of concurrent sessions. Lunch (buffet) and CEUs will be provided to registered participants.

Registration Fee: $20

(Payable by cash or check on October 15, 2019)
