This would be an all-grade license; students would need to pass the required licensure tests before being eligible for licensure; they do not need to pass the test prior to admission and they can enter with an undergraduate degree in any subject. Students could earn an M.Ed. in Teaching and Learning with 4 additional courses.
5. TEC Chair Report-Dan Clark – No report
6. Dean’s Report – Brad Balch. Will follow up about all-grade program curricula.
7. Associate Dean’s Report – Linda Sperry. No report.
8. Assistant Dean’s Report – Judy Sheese. No report. Power of Reading and Power of Math Summit registration is still open. We have 1070 people registered (about 700 reading, 300 math) from 30 states and two other countries.

9. Assessment Director's Report-Malea Crosby – No report.

10. Adjournment, 4:04 p.m.
