4. New Business
 - a) Caroline Savage-Guest Speaker (Campus Sustainability)
 - a. They are in the running for an award, and wanted to give us general information. She discussed sustainability and how they relate to the economy, society, and environment.
 - b. They have the largest community garden in the state and ISU Earth Day offers students and everyone info about sustainability-one of the top 11 earth days in the nation
 - b) Curriculog-EPSY 202L-Psychology of Childhood and Adolescence Lab (Linda Sperry presented)
 - a. Largest undergrad course and required course, social and behavioral science course, and if ELED OR CIMT students take this course they are fulfilling a gen ed. requirement.
 - b. Would like to create 18 classes with 40 students within the year, because they do not have enough graduate students or teachers to fulfill these requirements.
 - c. This will transform into an online course and they will create lab sections with 20 students each. The lab section will be a 0 credit hour course, which is mandatory. There will be four online sections with five lab sections each day.

- d. This will save money on staffing and it will improve efficacy, service, and will alleviate staffing problems.
 - e. L. Tinnerman moved to change the grading scale of this course to S-U from A-F. Furthermore, to change this course to a co-req from a concurrent pre-req. Diana Q. 2nd, called to vote 14-0-0.
