Test-Taking Errors: Self-Assessment

HOW TO USE FORM A: Errors in Test-Taking

Common errors in test-taking are listed in the left hand column of this form. At the top of the form is a row of blank spaces for you to write in the numbers of questions missed. Directly below each number, place "x" opposite the error(s) in test-taking which caused you to miss that question.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Name of Test: _____
Book/Disc/Program

Form A: Errors in Test-Taking

Question number:
1. Misread the question
2. Read into the question
3. Skipped limiting words (clues) in stem or answer
4. Defined problem incorrectly
5. Drew wrong conclusion
6. Placed answer in wrong space/did not move space bar
7. Did not trust first impulse
8. Carelessness
9. Did not think
10. Never studied/did not know area
11. Other/Vocabulary

Reinforcement Education Centers, Inc. 1988

1998 MEF/JA