

Indiana State University
College of Health and Human Services
Department of Baccalaureate Nursing

Traditional 4 Year Campus Track

Application Process

Admission to the nursing program involves

- University admission
 - admission requirements and regulations
 - application and instructions
- Nursing program admission
 - Complete the application form
 - choose SAVE when the dialog box opens (if you want to save a completed copy of the form; If a username and password are requested, click on Cancel)
 - save the document to a location from which you will be able to retrieve it if needed
 - print the application form
 - sign and date the application form
 - submit the application form including
 - copies of the required documentation indicated on the form
 - admission materials worksheet
 - by the deadline indicated above and on the form
 - according to instructions on the application form.
 - Official transcripts
 - Submit to Admissions Office

IMPORTANT: Beginning with the Fall 2015 application cycle, all pre-requisite courses must have been successfully completed within the last ten (10) years. Courses completed more than ten (10) years ago must be repeated.