

OPPORTUNITY TO CO-SPONSOR AND PURCHASE EXHIBIT SPACE FOR THE SPIRITUALITY AND GRIEF CONFERENCE PRESENTED BY DR. KENNETH PARGAMENT

Landsbaum Center for Health Education

- Exhibitor Space $150.00: will include a table for the business/practice and one free conference admission.
- Co-Sponsor Space $500.00: will include name of choice on the brochure as a co-sponsor, a table for the business/practice, and up to five free conference admissions.
*If you attend the entire conference you will qualify to receive continuing education units (CEU).

If you are interested in participating in this great opportunity, please contact Alivia Vaillancourt, Administrative Assistant to the Department of Social Work, at Indiana State University at 812-237-3611 or email at Alivia.Vaillancourt@indstate.edu

Sponsored by the Hamilton Center, Inc. and Indiana State University Learning Panel

Dr. Kenneth Pargament will be speaking about how to deal with grief using the viewpoint of spirituality. Dr. Pargament is not only known nationally, but has been noticed on an international level as well. Dr. Pargament won the 2000 Virginia Staudt Sexton Mentoring Award from the American Psychological Association for his work in inspiring faculty, undergraduate, and graduate research in the psychology of religion.

With this conference we would like to offer two different types of options available for those who would like to advertise their business/practice during this inspiring event.

Conference date will be Friday, November 15th, 2019 from 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Location: Landsbaum Center
1433 N 6 ½ St, Terre Haute, IN 47807