

FERPA Release Form

Student Conduct and Integrity
Division of Student Affairs

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT (FERPA) RELEASE | The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that prohibits Indiana State University from releasing a student’s education records to third-parties without the student’s prior written consent except under certain circumstances identified in the Code of Student Conduct (Section 7.2). By completing this form, a student hereby gives their consent to the University’s release of their disciplinary records according to the terms described below.

Name of Student: _____ 991 Number: _____

Current Address:

I, the undersigned, hereby authorize Indiana State University to release the following disciplinary records: Please identify whether this release is for full or partial disclosure of the disciplinary record(s).

to the following individual(s): Please list the names of the individuals, institutions, companies, etc., who are to receive the records and their address.

for the following purpose(s): Please list the purposes for which this release is being made. Examples including informing family, educational institutions, the media, or present or prospective employers of the information contained in the release

I understand and agree that (1) I have the right not to consent to the release of my education records; (2) I have the right to receive a copy of such records upon request; and (3) This consent shall only be valid for this particular request. Further requests will require additional consent.

Student Signature

Date

This information is released subject to the confidentiality provisions of appropriate state and federal laws and regulations which prohibit any further disclosure of this information without the written consent of the person to whom it pertains, or as otherwise permitted by such regulations.