

COLLEGE OF GRADUATE AND PROFESSIONAL STUDIES

MASTER'S PROGRAMS

Criminology and Criminal Justice, M.A.

The University offers a master of arts (M.A.) in criminology and criminal justice. The criminology and criminal justice program has been recognized as one of the best online programs in the country. SR Education Group, an education research publisher founded in 2004 released its rankings and Indiana State University is ranked among Online U's 2016 Best Value Online Colleges for Law and Criminal Justice Degrees.

College of Graduate and Professional Studies Requirements

- Application: indstate.edu/apply
- $45.00 application fee (nonrefundable). Payable by Visa, MasterCard, check or money order payable to Indiana State University (include SSN or student ID). Applications cannot be evaluated until the fee has been received. State students returning within two years from their last enrollment will be exempt from the fee.
- Official transcripts for all institutions attended (undergraduate and graduate) must be sent directly from the school attended to Graduate Admissions. E-transcripts should be sent to admissions@indstate.edu. Indiana State University graduates are not required to submit transcripts.
- Additional admission materials and requirements. Please see the specific program requirements below.

Department Requirements

Complete your application for fall admission by May 1 and for spring by October 1.

- Undergraduate grade point average (GPA) of 2.75
- CRIM 200, CRIM 423, and 12 credits in sociology, psychology, or political science
- Response to supplemental questions

College of Graduate and Professional Studies

812-237-3005

1-800-444-GRAD

ISU-GradInfo@indstate.edu

Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice

812-237-2192