

Agenda

University Assessment Council

9am, April 14th, 2017, Federal Hall (College of Business), room 222

- I. Welcome
Chair Shelley Arvin will convene the meeting.
- II. Approval of the February 10th Minutes
- III. Discussion on Assessment and the IRB
Ryan Donlan, Chair of the Institutional Review Board (IRB), will share his insights on how IRB requirements pertain to collecting, assessing, and reporting on student artifacts.
- IV. Reporting Assessment Activities in the Faculty Activity Database (FAD)
Joe Harder, Scott College of Business, will demonstrate the use of the FAD as a tool to track assessment activities.
- V. Results of the Critical Thinking Assessment Project
Mary Herrington-Perry will summarize the results and recommendations and seek suggestions for the draft's revision. (The report was included among the attachments.)
- VI. Updates from Council Members
Please come ready to share any assessment-related news from your department.
- VII. Coordinator's Report
The Coordinator's Report will focus primarily on concerns about assessment shared by Higher Learning Commission staff at its April meeting. (See the attachment called "HLC-Assessment-Concerns.")
- VIII. Adjournment

Our next meeting will be at 9am on Friday, September 8th.