

Student Learning Outcomes Library

Office of Assessment & Accreditation

Indiana State University

BS Finance

Spring 2020

Top of Form

Bottom of Form

Outcome	Related Foundational Studies or Graduate Goal
Students show that they master the key concepts in asset pricing and can measure risk and return for one security and for a portfolio of securities.	FS1, FS2
Students know the elements that are necessary to define investment goals in a policy statement.	FS1, FS3
Students show that they can study financial and economic conditions, perform industry analysis and company analysis and select the best securities for their investment portfolios.	FS2, FS3
Students show that they can monitor and manage their portfolios and update the investment as the conditions of the investor and/or markets change.	FS3
Students will be able to apply quantitative methods used in the analysis of the firm.	FS1, FS3
Students analyze, evaluate, and synthesize information to solve corporate financial problems faced by firms.	FS1, FS3
Students can conduct cash flow calculations and make capital budgeting decisions.	FS1, FS3
Students identify the operations and structure of the different financial institutions.	FS3
Students are able to identify the factors that affect interest rates and evaluate relations between the prices of securities and interest rates.	FS1, FS3

Students assess the different types of risks, including interest rate and foreign exchange risk, to which financial institutions are exposed and can apply financial techniques to reduce those risks.	FS3
Students are able to complete a comprehensive financial analysis on the performance of a financial institution.	FS1