

Student Learning Outcomes Library

Office of Assessment & Accreditation

Indiana State University

BS Athletic Training

Spring 2020

Top of Form

Bottom of Form

Outcome	Related Foundational Studies or Graduate Goal
Students will demonstrate knowledge and practical skills within the biological, behavioral, and clinical sciences.
1.1 Practical skills: Demonstrate basic practical skills necessary for safe patient interaction/handling during a medical evaluation
1.2 Theory application: Demonstrates knowledge and ability to apply theories from clinical sciences
Students will identify and assume personal accountability for ethical, political, and legal concerns consistent within the healthcare pro
2.1 Political infrastructure: Students will present on the political infrastructure of their desired profession per taking a political stance.
2.2 Scope of practice: Students will describe the scope of practice within the legal infrastructure of their desired profession
2.3 Ethical behavior: Students will demonstrate ethical behavior in an interdisciplinary health environment
Students will integrate professional behaviors and communication within the interprofessional healthcare environment.

3.1 Professional behavior: Student will demonstrate professional behavior in the healthcare environment
3.2 Oral communication: Student will communicate orally in an effective manner with healthcare professionals and/or patients and clients
3.3 Written communication: Student will demonstrate effective written communication within a healthcare setting that demonstrates the full mastery of communicative writing skills
Students will value and formulate plans for continuing personal and professional growth and development.
4.1 Professional growth plan: Student will develop a professional growth plan	