

Standing Requirements

Outcomes Library

1. BS in Baccalaureate Nursing Outcome Set

OBJ 1: Critical Thinker

Demonstrate purposeful thinking, intellectual integrity, solid reasoning and creative problem solving as the basis for making decisions and clinical judgments.

Outcome	Mapping
Outcome 1.1: Demonstrates Critical Thinking Demonstrates critical thinking in making decisions, clinical judgment, and in problem solving.	Foundational Studies: 2. Critically evaluate the ideas of others.
Outcome 1.2: Synthesize Knowledge Synthesizes theoretical and empirical knowledge from the sciences, humanities, and nursing organizations, planning, and providing care in collaboration with individuals, families, groups, and communities	Foundational Studies: 2. Critically evaluate the ideas of others.
Outcome 1.3: Select Appropriate Alternatives Selects appropriate alternatives when considering solutions to identified health needs of individuals, families, groups, and communities.	No Mapping
Outcome 1.4: Analyzes Diverse Viewpoints Analyzes diverse viewpoints in the interpretation of data and in determining conclusions.	Foundational Studies: 2. Critically evaluate the ideas of others.

OBJ 2: Communicator.

A communicator who incorporates goal-directed and focused dialogue into nurse-client interaction, demonstrates effective listening, reading, writing and speaking skills, and uses technology appropriately to facilitate management of information.

OBJ 3: Provider of Care

A provider of care who assumes a variety of roles in the delivery of holistic, competent, and culturally sensitive nursing care in multiple settings.

groups, and communities.

Outcome 3.2: Provides Diverse Interventions No Mapping

Provides holistic, culturally sensitive, safe, and effective therapeutic nursing interventions in collaboration with individuals, families, groups, and communities in multiple settings.

Outcome 3.3: Education of Patients No Mapping

Educates individuals, families, groups, and communities about wellness, disease/illness, medical-technical aspects, symptom management, self-care management, resource management, and alternative methods of healing.

Outcome 3.4: Evaluates Client Outcomes No Mapping

Evaluates client outcomes and the effectiveness of professional nursing practice.

Outcome 3.5: Revises Plan of Care No Mapping

Revises plan of care as appropriate in collaboration with individual, family, group, and interdisciplinary health care team.

Outcome 3.6: Evaluates Research No Mapping

Evaluates research and evidence-based information for application to nursing.

OBJ 4: Leader

A leader who provides responsible direction in the management of human, fiscal and material resources necessary for achieving quality health care outcomes.

Outcome	Mapping
Outcome 4.1: Assume a Leadership Role Assumes a leadership role in guiding members of the interdisciplinary health care team	No Mapping
Outcome 4.2: Adopts a Consumer-Oriented Approach Adopts a consumer-oriented approach in the delivery of cost-effective care.	No Mapping
Outcome 4.3: Prioritizes Therapeutic Goals Prioritizes therapeutic goals for providing quality care in collaboration with individuals, families, groups, and communities.	No Mapping
Outcome 4.4: Compares the Connection Between Resources Compares the connection between human, fiscal, and material resources required for providing care.	No Mapping
Outcome 4.5: Delegates Appropriate Functions Delegates appropriate functions to licensed and non-licensed caregivers in a manner consistent with the Indiana Nurse Practice Act.	No Mapping
Outcome 4.6: Performs Supervision Activities Performs selected supervision activities related to the actions of licensed and non-licensed caregivers.	No Mapping

OBJ 5: Professional.

Demonstrate accountability and responsibility for nursing judgments and actions within an ethical and legal framework.

Outcome	Mapping
Outcome 5.1: Ethical and Legal Framework. Practices within an ethical and legal framework and standards of professional nursing practice.	No Mapping
Outcome 5.2: Accountability and Responsibility. Demonstrates accountability and responsibility for one's own actions, clinical judgments, and decision-making.	No Mapping

Outcome 5.3: Ethical and Legal Decision Making. No Mapping
Demonstrates ethical and legal decision making surrounding health care dilemmas.

Outcome 5.4: Organizational Confidentiality. No Mapping
Protects client and organizational confidentiality.

OBJ 6: Life Long Learner

A student who adapts changes related to culture, ecology, economics, politics and the expansion of scientific knowledge and technology.

Outcome	Mapping
Outcome 6.1: Cultural Beliefs, Values, and Practices Considers how cultural beliefs, values and practices influence the Health Care of Individuals, families and groups and communities.	No Mapping
Outcome 6.2: Ecological Factors, Economics, and Politics Analyzes how ecological factors, economics and the political arena, shape health care policies and delivery of care.	No Mapping
Outcome 6.3: Maintain Current Knowledge Assumes responsibility to maintain current Knowledge in professional nursing practice by articulating a plan for life-long learning.	No Mapping
Outcome 6.4: Promotes Excellence Through Education Promotes excellence in nursing through regular attendance at educational activities designed to expand knowledge and competencies.	No Mapping

OBJ 7: Advocate

An advocate who promotes health care policy, finance, and regulatory environments for individuals, families, and communities.

Outcome	Mapping
Outcome 7.1: Participation in Activities. Participates in activities to improve health care practices and policies.	No Mapping
Outcome 7.2: Advocate for Policy Changes. Advocates for policy changes that promote health for individuals, families, groups, and communities.	No Mapping
Outcome 7.3: Understand Policy Development. Analyzes the role of the nurse policy developer in a variety of health care settings.	No Mapping

OBJ 8: Coordinator of Community Resources

A coordinator who collaborates with members of the interdisciplinary healthcare team in multiple settings.

Outcome	Mapping
Outcome 8.1: Coordinates Care with Interdisciplinary Members Coordinates care with members of the interdisciplinary health care team from a variety of health care settings.	No Mapping
Outcome 8.2: Accessing Community Resources Assists individuals, families, groups, and communities in accessing community resources to meet health needs.	No Mapping
Outcome 8.3: Refer to Services and Programs Refers individuals, families, groups, and communities to services and programs that promote wellness.	No Mapping

Last Modified: 09/16/2014 10:18:27 AM CDT