

Standing Requirements

Outcomes Library

BS in Athletic Training, Applied Medicine Concentration

1. Students will demonstrate knowledge and practical skills within the biological, behavioral, and clinical sciences.

Outcome	Mapping
1.1 Practical skills Demonstrate basic practical skills necessary for safe patient interaction/handling during a medical evaluation	No Mapping
1.2 Theory application Demonstrates knowledge and ability to apply theories from clinical sciences	No Mapping

2. Students will identify and assume personal accountability for ethical, political, and legal concerns consistent within the healthcare pro

Outcome	Mapping
2.1 Political infrastructure Students will present on the political infrastructure of their desired profession per taking a political stance.	No Mapping
2.2 Scope of practice Students will describe the scope of practice within the legal infrastructure of their desired profession	No Mapping
2.3 Ethical behavior Students will demonstrate ethical behavior in an interdisciplinary health environment	No Mapping

3. Students will integrate professional behaviors and communication within the interprofessional healthcare environment.

Outcome	Mapping
3.1 Professional behavior Student will demonstrate professional behavior in the healthcare environment	No Mapping
3.2 Oral communication Student will communicate orally in an effective manner with healthcare professionals and/or patients and clients	No Mapping
3.3 Written communication Student will demonstrate effective written communication within a healthcare setting that demonstrates the full mastery of communicative writing skills	No Mapping

4. Students will value and formulate plans for continuing personal and professional growth and development.

Outcome	Mapping
---------	---------

4.1 Professional growth plan

No Mapping

Student will develop a professional growth plan

Last Modified: 10/08/2014 07:51:06 AM CST