

Student Learning Outcomes Library

Office of Assessment & Accreditation

Indiana State University

BA/BS Human Development and Family Studies

Spring 2020

Top of Form

Bottom of Form

Outcome	Related Foundational Studies or Graduate Goal
Demographic, social, cultural trends—Identify and describe historical and current demographic, social, and cultural trends in families.
Principles of family dynamics—Apply principles of family dynamics to novel case studies.
Human development across the lifespan—Explain human development across the lifespan.
Aspects of human sexuality—Describe physiological, social, personal, and moral aspects of human sexuality
Interpersonal skills in family dynamics—Account for the role of interpersonal skills in family dynamics.
Family resource management principles—Identify the significant family resource management principles across the lifespan.
Aspects of parent education—Classify the significant aspects of parent education.
Public policies and laws—Outline public policies and laws that directly and indirectly effect families.
Professional ethics—Demonstrate professional ethics and apply in reflective journal and practicum.

Family life education methodologies—Employ family life education methodologies in self--created unit plans and in practicum settings.
---	--