

Standing Requirements

Outcomes Library

MED in Curriculum & Instruction Outcome Set

Commitment to students and their learning

NBPTS Core Proposition 1: Educators are committed to students and their learning.

Outcome	Mapping
Commitment to learning Projects convey an overall commitment to facilitating student learning and the environments that support them.	No Mapping

Knowledge of subject matter and pedagogy.

NBPTS Core Proposition 2: Educators know the subjects they teach and how to teach those subjects to students.

Outcome	Mapping
Knowledge and pedagogy. Projects demonstrate a deep level of content knowledge and pedagogy.	No Mapping

Managing and monitoring student learning.

NBPTS Core Proposition 3: Educators are responsible for managing and monitoring student learning.

Outcome	Mapping
Managing and monitoring student growth. Projects demonstrate a deep understanding of the theory and principles for managing, monitoring and ensuring student growth and development.	No Mapping

Reflection

NBPTS Core Proposition 4: Educators think systematically about their practice and learn from experience.

Outcome	Mapping
Reflection Projects demonstrate accurate reflection and the ability to integrate theory and practice to project pathways for productive future action.	No Mapping

Member of learning communities.

NBPTS Core Proposition 5: Educators are members of learning communities.

Outcome	Mapping
Participation in the learning community. Projects demonstrate the knowledge, skill, and inclination to be a productive member of a learning community.	No Mapping

Last Modified: 08/31/2010 03:57:42 PM CDT