

Student Learning Outcomes Library

Office of Assessment & Accreditation

Indiana State University

MS Special Education

Fall 2019

Top of Form

Bottom of Form

Outcome	Related Foundational Studies or Graduate Goal
Candidates will demonstrate an understanding of basic issues, laws, and policies and procedures related to special education
1.1 Candidates will identify foundations of Special Education, including current legal, regulatory, and ethical issues in special education
1.2 Candidate will develop an inclusive program for a student with exceptional learning needs
Candidates will demonstrate proficiency in teaching and supporting students with exceptional needs
2.1 Candidate will appropriately plan and teach content to students with exceptional needs
2.2 Candidate will identify the motivation behind behavior issues and develop interventions
2.3 Candidate will investigate the impact of instruction and other factors on students' learning
2.4 Candidate will analyze current practices in assistive technology and apply knowledge

2.5 Candidate will appropriately develop, individualize, apply, and interpret assessments with regards to students with exceptional learning needs
Candidates will demonstrate professional and collegial behavior with all stakeholders via collaborative and reflective practices
3.1 Candidate will collaborate with stakeholders to provide a positive learning environment for students with exceptional needs
3.2 Candidates will reflect on their practices and application of course content	