

Student Learning Outcomes Library

Office of Assessment & Accreditation

Indiana State University

BA Philosophy

Spring 2020

Top of Form

Bottom of Form

Outcome	Related Foundational Studies or Graduate Goal
Thinking objectively about issues and arguments, not being swayed by emotion and irrational personal preferences.	FS2
Thinking independently rather than primarily relying on others' opinions.	FS2
Developing open-mindedness, including understanding opposing views and appreciating the need for this understanding.	FS6
Recognizing the myriad ways that ethical and other philosophical principles apply to everyday experiences and life.	FS8
Cultivating critical and analytical thinking: penetrate deeply and critically into issues, rather than merely settling for a superficial understanding. Synthesize and contrast various ideas.	FS1, FS2
Communicating clearly and succinctly in writing.	FS10
Recognizing the myriad ways that ethical and other philosophical principles apply to everyday experiences and life.	FS8