

Extension of Study

Students may request an extension of studies for reasons such as health problems, changes in major, or other unforeseen problems. Extensions are granted in situations where the student has to complete studies on time.

F-1 or J-1 students who will not complete their program of study by the end date on their I-20 or DS 2019 need to request a program extension from the Center for Global Engagement (CGE) within 30 days before the document expires.

Requirements:

- Have maintained status throughout academic career
- Made normal progress toward completing program
- Was unable to complete studies by end date on I-20 or DS 2019
- Have a compelling reason for delay in completion of studies
 - Documented through the Academic Advisor's Form (attached), including:
 - Academic reasons for delay in completion
 - Number of courses or thesis credits lacking for completion
 - Amount of additional time needed to complete study
- Proof of financial support for additional time requested
- Request submitted to CGE 30 days before the current I-20 expires
- Proof of health insurance if available

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact:

To Apply:

1. Obtain an Extension of Study packet from the Center for Global Engagement.
2. Have your advisor fill out the Advisor's Recommendation for an I-20 Extension for International Student Form.
3. Obtain proof of financial support for the additional time requested or for one year (whichever is less). This may be a letter of support from your sponsor or parent accompanied by a certified financial statement or bank letter. If you are fully supported by your department, this should be a letter from your department stating the amount of continued support (including stipend and any tuition assistance).
4. Visit the Center for Global Engagement.
 - If you are an F-1 student, bring the above documents and copies of all previous I-20s, I-94 card, and passport page showing its expiration date.
 - If you are a J-1 student, bring the above documents plus copies of all previous DS 2019, I-94 card, and passport page showing its expiration date.
 - Completed application will be processed in 5 days.
 - Provide proof of health insurance if available. For J-1 students it is mandatory.
5. If you are eligible for a program extension, we will update your SEVIS record and issue a new I-20. You will need to come to CGE to pick up your new I-20.
