RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING WARREN M. ANDERSON SCHOLARSHIP 2022 – 2023

1. The Warren M. Anderson Scholarship is offered to a limited number of entering freshmen who have earned a 3.5 in high school by February 1. The Warren M. Anderson Scholarship is valued at full in-state tuition. To retain this scholarship, the student must:

   A. Enroll as a full-time student each semester (minimum of 12 credits).

   B. File FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) by Indiana State deadline of April 15th.

   C. Be in good standing - academic and conduct as measured at the end of each academic year for the duration of eligibility.

   * Accepting the scholarship authorizes this office to request confirmation of good conduct from the Office of Student Conduct and Integrity.

2. Warren M. Anderson Scholars will attend monthly leadership meetings during their first year. They will meet with University and Terre Haute Community leaders who will lead discussion on topics from their professional and academic experiences. These mandatory meetings are held Tuesday nights at 7:00 p.m.

3. TheWarren M. Anderson Scholarship is good for a total of eight consecutive semesters of enrollment, or the point at which a student earns his/her first undergraduate degree, whichever comes first.

4. A student who withdraws or discontinues enrollment for one or more semesters may request renewal for a future semester by writing to the University Scholarship Office before withdrawing. The appeal form is available at indstate.edu/thebranch, and can be best found by searching "Scholarship Appeal Form." The appeal should include the reason(s) for withdrawal and the semester he/she is planning to re-enroll. Students who withdraw or discontinue full-time yearly enrollment without submitting a written appeal and getting approval for the reinstatement of the scholarship will forfeit their award. Once the scholarship is lost, it cannot be reinstated.

5. Semesters in which a student enrolls are charged against the offer regardless of completion of classes, incomplete grades, or no grades.
