Faculty Guide: Faculty Activity Database (FAD) Year 4 & Year 5 Faculty

Years 4 & 5 DUE DATE for FAD: Thursday, November 9th

- FAD is essentially our electronic professional portfolio. It is used for annual evaluations, ISU accreditation (Higher Learning Commission), various reports throughout the year for departments and the college (syllabi, service, scholarship)

General reminders:

- Review Department / School Promotion, Tenure, and Retention Policy
- Tenure-Track: Review College Promotion & Tenure Policy
- Instructors: Review College Promotion and Retention of Instructors

Evaluation Process for Year 4 and Year 5 Faculty:

- Faculty submit FAD by due date
- Department / School check-in (this is done by your Department Chair, but does not do an evaluation yet, just administratively reviews your FAD to see if report has same date as submitted materials, if there are summary statements, etc. However, a Chair can decide to forward a submission 'as is' even if things are missing – it is your responsibility as faculty to ensure your materials are as complete and accurate as possible).
- Department / School Personnel Committee evaluation
- Department / School Chair evaluation
- Faculty acknowledgment & response (you have an option to provide a response to reviews, but it is not a requirement). If you do not move your FAD to the next step, it will automatically advance in 7 days.
- College check-in
- Dean evaluation
- Faculty acknowledgment & response (optional)
- Academic Affairs check-in
- Provost Level review
- Faculty file step (this is the final version that reflects all the previous steps and this goes in your faculty file).

Important FAD reminders:

- Syllabus: Include for every course, and every section of that course
- Student evaluations: Include for every course, and every section of that course.
- If applicable, include High Impact Practices and Career Readiness Competencies, attaching examples for at least one or more of what you checked (recommend doing this for every class, every section).
- Run a Rapid Report to review. It will open as a word document and will show if there are any spelling / grammar errors, etc. If something needs to be corrected, you must go back into the specific FAD entry and correct it. The downloaded report is taking information directly from FAD, so altering the word document will not save to FAD.
- Under the Workflow tab, depending on College preference, Summary Statements can be brief or longer narratives. Brief points can be data based (e.g. “attended 9 out of 10 faculty meetings”; “my student evaluations ranged from 4.5-5.0 on a scale of 0-5 with a mean of 4.73”; “I wrote 7 recommendation letters for students”; “I taught 358 students – 58 distance, 250 undergraduate, 50 graduate) and entered into the summary boxes. If summary statement is longer than a few sentences, add it as an attachment PDF.
- On the Summary Screen (where you actually will click the button to submit your FAD):
  - Depending on College preference:
    - Upload your current CV
    - Include an executive summary and/or upload the P&T/Retention document with which you are being evaluated
  - Remember to refresh the PDF report RIGHT BEFORE YOU SUBMIT your materials!!

Step 2: Workflow

4. This should be the next screen you see (Annual Review, teaching summary, etc). This is the page for your summary statements.
5. Enter/upload your CV and summary statements. Be sure to convert documents to PDF prior to uploading.
6. 'Refresh Report' for Annual Review (this is your FAD report). The Last Updated date should be the same date you submit your FAD. At any point, if you want, you can click on and open the Annual Review and open it to make sure it shows what you intend.
7. Click on "Actions" (upper right corner) and click "Save Draft". Then, to see what is saved, use the back arrow, or click on Activities – something to take you out of the Workflow tab. Then, click the Workflow tab again, and whatever you saved should be visible.
8. When ready to submit FAD, Click on "Actions" and click "Submit to Department Check-In". Your FAD will now be submitted and will progress through the review process.
