

STUDY ABROAD IN CROATIA

FACULTY LED TRIP, MAY 16-JUNE 12, 2019

ENJOY A FABULOUS FOUR-WEEK SUMMER CRIM COURSE WHICH INCLUDES CLASSROOM LECTURE AT UNIVERSITY OF ZAGREB & ADDITIONAL TRAVEL!!!

- PERFECT FOR INEXPERIENCED INTERNATIONAL TRAVELERS!! - Well organized and efficiently planned program led by Professor Decker - a veteran traveler who has led students in study abroad travel many times and can assist students in preparing for international travel.
- APPROPRIATE FOR STUDENTS AT ANY LEVEL OF STUDY – From those just completing their freshman year through graduate students, on campus or distance students, Crim majors, International Studies minors and other ISU students. Course credit is for Crim 416-Symposium on Comparative Criminal Justice.
- MANY STUDENTS CAN USE REGULAR FINANCIAL AID - & sometimes other funding sources may be available through various ISU programs and offices. See Professor Decker or the ISU Office of Global Engagement to discuss details. Estimated costs per student for this trip are $2000 (final price subject to costs at time of booking of flights and accommodations) plus usual tuition fees for enrolling in the Crim 416 course.
- EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING - See first-hand how US criminal justice issues compare to those same issues in Croatia and other parts of the world. Learn about a different culture and make friends with students from University of Zagreb while taking class and enjoying leisure time together.
