

Three-Minute Thesis Competition (3MT)

Can you explain your thesis in 3 minutes?

The College of Graduate and Professional Studies, Center for Student Research and Creativity, and Extended Learning are sponsoring two three-minute thesis competitions. One, for local students, will be held in the public events area of the Cunningham Memorial Library on April 12th at 7 pm. The winner will receive a $500 scholarship. The other competition is for distance students (who will stream their presentations live to ISU for the judges and audience to view and will be held April 11 at 7 pm in University Hall 08R. All competitors must be enrolled in Spring 2018 and participate in a workshop on improving their presentations. The workshop will be streamed live (and recorded) to allow for participation by distance students. The date and place of the workshop will be announced. Please see the guidelines for eligibility, the rules, and how the competition will be scored at <https://www.indstate.edu/csrc/graduate-students>.

See a 3MT presentation at these web addresses.

- https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=reEFBeQaX7gfeature=player_embedded
- <https://youtu.be/-e382qkCLWk>
- <https://youtu.be/JGszDaegaLo>

Registration deadline is March 16, 2018. To register for the competition, please contact Jenifer Pollom at 812-237-2520 or Jenifer.pollom@indstate.edu. To register you will need to provide the following: Name, Department, Thesis/dissertation advisor, Name of Thesis/Dissertation, whether you will present on campus or through webstreaming (only for distance students), and a 100-word abstract and contact information (e-mail and telephone number).