Courses

Planning Your Summer Yard

With Tom Cummings of The Apple House and Jim Martin of Bunch Nurseries

Date: Thursdays, February 18 and 25, 2021
Time: 2 - 4 PM
Place: Zoom link will be sent to Individuals registered
Cost: $6 (Zoom only)

In an effort to combat the mid-winter doldrums and to inspire early searches through landscaping and lawn and seed catalogs, come join local lawn and garden experts with special knowledge and skills to help you start thinking of warmer times and being outside.

Tom Cummings of The Apple House will discuss specific plants for specific sunlight and seasonal applications and how to lay out a flower garden. Participants will become familiar with annuals and perennials and species which will allow seasonal long colors, including the use of wildflower species. Tom will discuss soil preparation, planting of seeds, and the best times to begin planting.

Jim Martin of Bunch Nurseries will discuss various yard, and garden, and landscape features, as well as valuable tips for making sure adequate drainage is planned for plants, beds, and ornamental landscape structures. Class participants will be asked if they have any landscape issues that can be discussed in class with Jim giving his excellent advice. OLLI is also working on a special walking tour through the large inventory of trees, shrubs, ornamentals and landscaping materials maintained by Bunch Nurseries in the coming warmer months.

Join Ed for a look at ten selections from the Swope’s permanent collection to commemorate the 100th anniversary of Hermann Rorschach’s book Psychodiagnostik. This book contained the results of his studies on mental patients, and the ten cards that became the foundation of the Rorschach test. While still a medical student, he wondered why different people saw different things in art, and began showing inkblots to children and analyzing their responses. Join us for this virtual tour and ask yourself, What do you see? And why? (You might want to register for the Wednesday February 3 presentation in advance of this tour.)

Come join Kris for our third virtual cooking presentation. This presentation will feature a Carnival Theme connection with the OLLI class titled “Don’t Stop the Carnival”. Even better you don’t have to go shopping for the ingredients! You will pick up your complete kit the day before the event at The Butler's Pantry. More information will be sent out to those registered!

Join Kerri Wilhelm, the new director for the Vigo County Historical Society & Museum, for a more in depth look at Fort Harrison. Fort Harrison was a War of 1812 era stockade constructed in October 1811 on high ground overlooking the Wabash River on a portion of what is today the modern city of Terre Haute, Indiana.
Wednesday Presentations

What Do You See? The Rorschach Test
With Liz O’Laughlin, Professor and Director of Training ISU Psychology Department

Date: Wednesday, February 3, 2021
Time: 1:30 - 3 PM
Place: Zoom link will be sent to those registered
Cost: FREE but registration is required (Zoom only)

In preparation of our Swope Art Museum Virtual Tour: Psychodiagnostik on February 16, ISU Professor Liz O’Laughlin will explain what the Rorschach Test is and what it isn’t and how it is administered and interpreted. In addition, we will also look at the history and changes that have occurred to the test over the years. Finally, we will learn what purposes the Rorschach test is typically used for (i.e., personality assessment, to assess for disordered thinking) which will touch on mental health.

With Caroline Cocciardi, Writer and Filmmaker

Date: Wednesday, February 17, 2021
Time: 1:30 - 3 PM
Place: Zoom link will be sent to those registered
Cost: FREE but registration is required (Zoom only)

Author Caroline Cocciardi focuses on a facet of Renaissance artist Leonardo da Vinci’s artwork that has been overlooked for centuries but visual to the naked eye. Leonardo’s placement and use of inspired knots throughout his artwork as seen in such iconic works as “Mona Lisa” to “The Last Supper.” The intertwining knot Leonardo invents tells the story of a hidden message unlocked by Cocciardi and revealed in Mona Lisa’s embroidery pattern. This lecture is based on Caroline’s book, Leonardo’s Knots.
